EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The meeting of September 10, 1974, was called to order by SA president, Bill Fowler at 5:24 p.m. Bambi led the opening prayer.

ABSENT: Dr. Jerome Barnes

LUNCH LINES: Bill met with Dr. Ganus and reported that our requests were to satisfy too few people at too great an expense. The cafeteria situation, at present, is stabilized.

REGISTRATION: Bambi suggested that we write to other schools asking about registration procedures. Suzi suggested that the upperclassmen be allowed to register during the spring semester. Suggestions were also made concerning efficiency. Four lines in the gym would possibly be faster. Dewitt moved that a committee be selected to investigate registration procedures. The motion was seconded and carried. Bambi, Bob, Nancy, and Bill will serve on this committee.

WHO'S WHO: The council voted and selected names of students they considered worthy of the honor. A committee was set up to investigate the activities of the selected students.

SMOKING IN THE DORMS: Nancy moved that men not be allowed to smoke in the dorms. The motion was tabled until the next meeting.

GOALS: Bill submitted the following goals for the council to keep in mind this year.

1. Be positive in everything done.
2. Be aware of campus situations and sensitive to people's needs.
3. Create and maintain Christ centered atmosphere.
4. Promote growth of individuals, physically, socially, and spiritually.
5. Establish a greater coordination of activities among clubs.
6. To be honest with the students, faculty, and ourselves.
