Alumni Reception-The reception will be held immediately following the football game in the student center TV lounge. Nancy and Brenda will take this responsibility.

HALLOWEEN PARTY: The gym has been reserved from 7:00-10:00 p.m. on October 31. Jim and Suzy are working together and will ask the class officers to assist.

WORLD EVANGELISM WORKSHOP: It will be the responsibility of the SA to plan the devo on Friday, November 1, at 9:30.

CHRISTIAN COLLEGE CONFERENCE: Bill reported the trip to Pepperdine was very inspiring and informing. The council was able to talk with the other delegates concerning conditions specific to their area. Individual growth was felt within the council members in seeing the beauty of God's creation in a different setting. Those representing Harding were Bill Fowler, Mike Lincoln, Brenda Dimitt, Nancy Cochran, Brant Bryan, Lott Therrio, Suzy Priddy, Tom Reynolds, Ben Sims, and Dr. Jerome Barnes.

REGISTRATION: The committee on registration will meet next Monday to discuss plans.

PORNOGRAPHY: Bill reported that the faculty has spoken favorably of starting some sort of organized effort to rid the area stores of pornography. Bambi made a motion that a student committee be established to direct the effort.

PLEDGE WEEK: It was brought to the attention of the council that many faculty and students are concerned about pledge week. Points under discussion were the seemingly un-Christian things that go on during the week and the neglect of many clubs to obey the rules. The council agreed that clear cut guidelines should be made and that any rules set up should be enforced. Dewitt suggested that a list of goals concerning the purpose of pledge week be included. Suzy moved that a committee be established to investigate and evaluate pledge week. The motion was seconded and carried. The committee will consist of both student and faculty representatives to be named later.

LETTER FROM DR. PRYOR: A letter was received from Dr. Joe asking the council's opinion on moving back the dates for finals from Dec. 16-21 to Dec. 14-19. Suzy made a motion that finals begin Dec. 14 and proceed through the 19th. It was seconded and carried.
