Dear Folks,

One of the rewarding aspects of gospel preaching is the large number of friends that one makes, especially is this so when those friends are as kind and thoughtful as you are. The birthday card was deeply appreciated.

I am very sorry that Sue and I were unable to be in your home during the meeting, however, I am sure that you understand the reasons why. There were just too many places to go in one week.

We arrived home safely and found everything in normal order. It has been a big job, however, to get caught up with the work and go to school at the same time. It was a genuine pleasure to be associated with you during the meeting. We send our best wishes for your health and welfare.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
