Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Vowell
Maple View Farm
Marmaduke, Ark.

Dear Folks:

We recently heard of Aunt Hattie's illness and her stay in the hospital. We hope that she is much better at this writing. We would appreciate hearing from you as to her condition if such is possible.

I am looking forward to seeing you while in the Rector meeting which begins June 11, 1961. Tell everybody you see I am coming so we will have some good crowds. I hope to have the time to get down to your place while I am at Rector.

We are all getting along just fine. Mary Elizabeth now weighs 26 lbs and is a year old. They will not be with me on the trip, however, they send you their love and regards.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
