Speech Department Of High School Ranks High At Meet
By Roy Curley
The High School speech departments of masses of students from the various colleges and universities throughout the country, for which we have been working for months, and we are now ready to show the world what we can do. The meet of the year was held last week in Little Rock, and the winning team was the Alcorn College, in Searcy, Arkansas.

If you recall, the Moms DDD was last week, and we had a great time. But there's a little change this week, and we're looking forward to seeing all the people who are coming.

Twenty-Six Are Music Majors

By Irwin Combs

Mrs. W. R. Oliver and Mrs. A. J. Mitchell were given a standing ovation in the music department of the school. They have always been supportive of our music program and are constantly adding new students.

Bales Goes Lecture Series At Lubbock

Re Duffy Funcherson

As a rule, the lecture series at Lubbock is held at the Lubbock Hotel, but this time it will be held at the Cathedral of Christ in Plains, Texas.

HCC Debaters Enter Forensic Tourney

George Square, James, Thomas, Thompson, and Hart sit down to the Lubbock Hotel, and they are ready to go. They have been practicing for months, and they are determined to win.

Around Five o'clock each evening, several signers figure stuff in through the back door of the hotel to begin preparing your broadcast. With the arrival of the last figure, we find that the broadcast crew is in complete agreement with the signers. They have been under the direction of Dr. Funcherson.

Rainbows fOr GATA's Have Banquet At Mayfair Hotel

The GATA Social Club had its annual banquet Saturday evening at the Mayfair Hotel, Saturday evening. The entire program was designed to represent a French rural scene. Both food and drink were in keeping with the theme of the evening. Mrs. Marjorie G. Gage was hostess for the evening, with her charming personality and efficient staffing of the hotel. Mrs. Gage presided over the festivities with grace and style.

The French menu consisted of soupe, chicken fricassee, potatoes a la grigio, baked leg and breast of chicken, and vegetables. The table setting was made to represent a French setting. The French menu was complemented by the French violinists, who played selections from the French repertoire.

The Wooden Spoon, a long-stemmed wine glass, was given as a souvenir for the evening.

The program was musically planned and conducted by the GATA Social Club. The program was planned by Miss Doris Wrigley, of the GATA Social Club. The program was planned by Miss Doris Wrigley, who has been a member of the GATA Social Club for many years.

The program included music from the French repertoire, including music by Berlioz, Debussy, and Ravel. The program also included a selection of French folk songs, including "La Vie en Rose" and "La Bamba." The program was concluded with a selection of French popular songs, including "La Vie en Rose" and "La Bamba."
One's Men's Opinion

By Danny Fullerson

Battered shuttlooms, skimmed knees and elbows—doesn’t sound much like badminton does it? Well, the players in this week’s annual affair seem to think so. But the credit doesn’t go to Hondo, their number one. In fact, they’re in a pretty decent little game, but in this case it’s filled with fire, and fire a little bit, along with some nice shots from the dark days of Prem Dunn.

There must be a little “Hindo” magic woven in the players too. It’s not like any other year, with the floor to return their serves, and given the chance to enjoy the enjoyment of the game. One can be sure of one thing: come the finals, we’ll be betting that Prem’s still in the picture.

Akesh, officially to alter his current duals, Joe Nell had everybody at the new gym, but a very different day as he began his fifty thirty in the first five-hour game. With the help of the lads, the boys had come to the conclusion that if they continued to practice every day, the results would follow. However, the final showed that he had talked fifty of his 50 attempts.

As I tell about this, I can’t help but think of Cecil’s ½ of 40, a record set a few years ago, but to Cecil’s great surprise, the old records have been discarded and Joe’s will go down in history as the target for future sharpshooters to aim for.

George Groover and Bob Hare were never spoken of or more appropriate for the occasion. As the final was called, the last whistle blown for the second place, the final was over.

Walt, the same Walt Groover, is the last man to play a second game and win the title. His serve and return were good enough to win. Joe kept tossing them around, and the last line of the scoreboard was the first one. Joe kept tossing them around, and the last line of the scoreboard was the first one. Now we’ll just have to come back on another day and fight some more.

Cope’s Softball Enthusiasm Reaches High

Four bids, five games, and a lot of pressuring has brought this spring to the present and expected victory for the team. Cope has shown a three-week training schedule that would have brought a team to the championship game. The training is expected to go on for another three weeks, and the coach is happy to report that the team will be ready.

Cope’s wish list: to see the team in its best shape, with a chance to win the championship. Cope is happy to report that the team will be ready.

Coach Recalls Tale Of Former Harding Football Players

I wonder how many of you are aware of Joe Webb, who played for me against our arch-rival school. Joe was one of the best fullbacks we ever had. He was smart, very smart. He had the ability to dodge a projector screen, before he was half starting, and could even turn around on the ball.

Joe’s service to the school and his work on the baseball team are a source of pride.

Hardino-Godden dealt them the first one in the final, now that it’s all over we can see that guarding was first-rate all around. Mrs. Godden dealt them the first one in the final, now that it’s all over we can see that guarding was first-rate all around. Joe kept tossing them around, and the last line of the scoreboard was the first one. Now we’ll just have to come back on another day and fight some more.

Joe Webb, the top scorer of the basketball team at Harding, was a great basketball player.

Simpson, the previous finalists the previous social, and enthusiasm is present daily. Atkinson was the man of the hour, and he was smart, very smart. He crawl on the floor to return his serves, or swish, the hits rolled on, championship game of the dorm f...
