4-8-1950

The Bison, April 8, 1950

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.harding.edu/thebison

Recommended Citation
Shots From The Foul Line
By Dennis Fulkerson

It seems that the Bulls staff is plagued with a case of deja vu. (See page 8) In another hotly-contested game, the Bulls appeared to be in control of the game, only to find themselves on the losing end.

Don't be fooled into thinking that the Bulls are the only ones with a losing streak. The Nets, 20 to 18, are also in a slump, and the whole team is in a slump, except for the guard at a record-breaking pace. This is the second game in a row that the Bulls have had the lead after 5 minutes of play. They just can't seem to hold on.

They aren't running. They can't catch us. We're going to blow them out like a candle. (See page 9)

After the April snow, most basketball fans were still in the doghouse. It's that time of year again. The Bulls are back, and Phoenix crowded the back line to watch. But they couldn't avoid encounters with the "Happy Game." It was a night of pure joy for everyone.

Tom Lavender is making his fourth appearance this season as a member of the class. Mr. Lavender, who lives in West Texas and has coached in the area before, says that the area is a fair and the truth is that he's been there before.

Like to know how Fred Dinkins opened the season? He was one of the highest paid in the West. Of course, that's because he stole his entire wardrobe when the team was in a hotel in Chicago. Everything was just fine, except for the poor guy who tried to reach him. You can't have a little hammering in a small town like this.

The lads are the ones who are crowding the bleachers. The black tined gray derby, much like the one Fred has, is pouring from the ceiling. If any story is going to break, it will break soon.

If the April snow actually affected the game, it will be the first winter in New York since 1974. The New Yorker is not happy about the snow, but he is having a good time. He is the only man in New York who can say that. The past alley lineups in programs have been more popular than the 1974 snowfall. The best of both worlds.

The championship is not yet in sight. Four years ago, the championship was not in sight.

Jo Fo Studio Gets New Name As Owner Offers Reward (?) (In Moniker Column)

Skillman Officer In Speech Association

Professor Bill Skillman, head of the Speech Association, was elected secretary of the association's Student Speech Association last week. He was elected at a convention held in the Memorial Union.

The speech association's annual meeting this year will be held on May 16th in the Memorial Union. The meeting will be a time of reflection and the future direction of the association.

Future Counselors For Armstrong

Several Counselors From Last Year To Be On Hand

The Armstrong School is preparing to open for the new year. School officials said that they expect to have an average of 100 students attending the school.

Pamela Sanders has been named the new student advisor. She is a recent graduate of the university and has been involved in student affairs.

Jo Fo Studio Gets New Name As Owner Offers Reward(?)(In Moniker Column)

Sixth Freedom Forum To Open On Monday At Famous Sun Valley

Upward of 75 industrial leaders will attend the annual Harding School's 6th Freedom Forum at Sun Valley this weekend. The forum is an annual event held by the Harding School, a private business school located in Sun Valley, Idaho.

The forum is designed to bring together some of the top business minds in the country to discuss current economic issues and to share their insights.

The speakers at this year's forum will include a variety of business leaders, including entrepreneurs, executives, and economists. The forum is expected to attract attendees from across the country.

The forum will begin on Monday morning and run through Wednesday. It will feature a series of panel discussions, keynote speeches, and networking events.

The forum is open to the public, and tickets can be purchased online. For more information, please visit the Harding School's website.
Happy Birthday

Associated Speaking
By Betty Romney

Have you noticed that big grin on Ken Patterson's face this past weekend at Jate? Well, he has a right to be happy because he and his dad arrived back at Harding after being away three weeks. Ken, who visited him here during the operation, was thrilled that his dad could finally see the shut-down ride. John, you're an artist at shooting the bull, but perhaps you better keep it for when it's just you and a group of friends.

John Davis came back from Phi Delta with a slight limp. It may mean the end of his basketball career, if he finds that he felt off of a farmer's make during the season. He's a good competitor on the floor. John, you're an artist at shooting the bull, but perhaps you better keep it for when it's just you and a group of friends.

Late there have been a number of visitors on the campus, and in all probability there will be a steady flow until the annual homecoming at the end of the week. As these visitors come on the campus they will observe many things known as a novelty in our everyday lives. They will notice the conduct of the student body in the different halls, in the dining hall, and everywhere they come in contact with students they will have a critical eye open.

As we at Harding are supposed to be preparing these students for their future lives and uphold Christian standards among them, it is in our best behavior at all times. We never know who may be watching us. Are you having on others, or what the result of some carelessly or unthinkingly said may have on the person of younger or weaker individual?

It really is not easy to surmise the exact number of students who will leave the campus behind, with that "hail" must be added, because there comes only from a truly friendly atmosphere here, and a heart and soul thoroughly superfried. And when a stranger or new student comes into our midst he is often left out alone, feeling like a cold stranger, although barked by the dog.

The student body must always remain on the alert for slight faults that may expose them. It is true that Hard- ing is a truly friendly atmosphere here, but it is always wary of people.

Let's all try harder to be friendly, serene, and Christian in our every action.

April 19, 1950

A. C. Pulis accepted the invitation to deliver the commencement address on May 20.

February 24, 1949

Forty-two books had been bought for the purposes of the library during the year, as was required by the law. We received a total of 124 books in the library, which was a little less than the usual amount.

March 12, 1949

Dominoes was the first game in the men's division of the Big Ten Conference. The girls' team was not so successful, but it may be come better later in the season.

April 16, 1949

Due to the stormy weather, the Harding dining hall had literally been turned into a madhouse.

January 1949

Each term's $2 was taken out of the students' fees to cover the unsystematic cost of the issue.
Strictly Collegiate

By Ann Morris

In April of 1936, it is expected to wear more of the informal and comfortable clothing seen in fast fashion stores. The fashion is loose and comfortable, and the days are longer, allowing for easier and more relaxed dressing.

Miss Oldham Honorees At Buffet Dinner

Lavinia Bagnetto and Miss Oldham were honored at a buffet dinner honoring Miss Oldham, held at the Surf Club. The dinner was attended by a large number of guests, including the mayor and his wife, and the event was called the Surf Club dinner.

Representatives Of TTA Attend AEA Convention

Mrs. Lucian Bagnetto and Miss Oldham were among the representatives attending the AEA convention, held in the city of New Orleans. The convention was attended by representatives from various states, including Louisiana.

W. L. Smith Honored With Title Of Member Of AEA

Miss Oldham was honored with the title of member of the AEA, recognized for her contributions to the organization.

Gala Club Meeting Held

The Gala Club held a meeting attended by four guests of their honored member, Lucy Oldham Bagnetto, followed by a buffet dinner.

Housing Student Government Council

Miss Oldham honored by the Student Government Council of the University of New Orleans.

New and Modern

Whole County's Largest and Latest

Virginia Lewis Mens Store

"So a young man's clothes mean more to him than he knows, he is not just buying clothes, he is buying the store."

Troy Wright

A.

BRADLEY'S Barber Shop

We appreciate your business

N.

TONIGHT AT EASTER

While a whole new outfit for the boy that bought clothes in stores. They are the best boy, they buy his own clothes.

TROY WRIGHT

A.

M.

WESTERN AUTO STORE

MOBILE TO 10

Guaranteed! To be on delivery on April 15.

Houyer's House

Stouty's, Arkadelphia.

SOUTHERN MOBILE THEOLOGY

WORLD VISION

PUBLISHING CO.

1060 Meridian White Rd.

WILLIAM WALKER

Photographer

HARDING UNIVERSITY

In the fall, the Harding student body will be in full swing, and the campus will be buzzing with activity. The fall season is a great time to visit the campus and experience everything the university has to offer.

HARDING BISON, SEARCY, ARKANSAS.

Fulkerson, Curry, to Head Freshman Division

As the fall season begins, the Freshman Division of Harding Academy is excited to welcome its new students. The Freshman Division is led by Fulkerson and Curry, who are looking forward to a successful year.

The Freshman Division is responsible for providing a supportive and engaging environment for incoming students. The division is dedicated to helping students transition into college and build a strong foundation for their academic and personal success.

Henderson, the basketball team's head coach, is also excited for the upcoming season. He believes that the team has the talent and potential to achieve great things.

"We are looking forward to a great season," Henderson said. "We have a talented team and I am confident that we can make a strong impact this year."
Johnson Picks Up Column Bums

Over the course of the earlier years of the Kansas Citys, there was a tendency for the Brays to lose the first game series, but the Braves seemed to have found a way to win the first game.

The story is simple: Johnson, materialized. Claude Danley's slip-up on a foul fly which developed hot bounder to short hitter L. so hit a triple to center field The Dodgers tried stout-hearted, tended the meeting.

Bums to three scattered hits, in Phils

...