Dear Malcolm:

You should write the John A. Dickson publishing company, 179 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago 1, Ill., and ask for a dealers contract. Remember that they do not allow book stores, as such, to handle their Bibles, but you can get a contract as an individual.

I am glad to learn the whereabouts of those folders that I left in your car. I certainly hope your book business is off to a good start.

Give Billie Ruth and the son our best regards.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
