Executive Council Positions Filed; First Meeting To Be Monday

Charles Crawford, president of the Student Association, announced yesterday morning that the first meeting of the students' association will be held Monday afternoon at 4:30 in the Student Union.

Crawford, who was elected head of the new organization last week, said that the meeting will be open to the student body in supporting the new constitution.

This afternoon 548 were for the charter, and of opposing 548 were for the charter, and of opposing this organization, it should be understood that the officers and representatives on this executive council do not make up the student body as a whole. In the same way, the representatives and high officials of the executive council may not necessarily do the executive council.

To meet each and every student so that he feels he is a part of this organization. It should be understood that the officers and representatives on this executive council do not make up the student body as a whole. In the same way, the representatives and high officials of the executive council may not necessarily represent the student body as a whole.

Pledge Week May Be Tough But It's For a Noble Cause

By Bill Curry

Prohibition is a hard thing. Therefore, for the sake of our health and the general welfare, we ask that the many who are willing to let their bodies be wrecked by the unknown but deadly substance called "prohibition" will refrain from any such actions. And, by doing so, they will be helping to enforce the laws of the land and thereby do their part to keep our country safe.

If you are thinking of making the pledge, please consider the following:

1. It is not easy to do the right thing, but it is impossible to do the wrong thing.
2. It will help to make a better world for all of us.
3. It will help to prevent crime and war.
4. It will help to keep our children healthy and happy.
5. It will help to keep our streets clean and our homes safe.
6. It will help to keep our country prosperous and free.
7. It will help to keep our people honest and moral.
8. It will help to keep our government strong and free.
9. It will help to keep our country rich and strong.
10. It will help to keep our country strong and free.

By making the pledge, you will be helping to make a better world for all of us.

Eight Colleges Attend A.C. P. Conv.

Representatives from eight of the collegiate publication press met at Chicago College, 1001 S. Halsted Street, at 11 a.m. yesterday for the eight colleges' annual meeting.

Miss Vera Whieter, from Arkansas College, served as the chairman of the meeting.

The discussion focused on the problems facing the eight colleges, with particular emphasis on the need for unity and cooperation.

The meeting adjourned at 12:30 p.m., with plans to meet again next year.

Eight Colleges Attend A.C. P. Conv.

Representatives from eight of the collegiate publication press met at Chicago College, 1001 S. Halsted Street, at 11 a.m. yesterday for the eight colleges' annual meeting.

Miss Vera Whieter, from Arkansas College, served as the chairman of the meeting.

The discussion focused on the problems facing the eight colleges, with particular emphasis on the need for unity and cooperation.

The meeting adjourned at 12:30 p.m., with plans to meet again next year.

Eight Colleges Attend A.C. P. Conv.

Representatives from eight of the collegiate publication press met at Chicago College, 1001 S. Halsted Street, at 11 a.m. yesterday for the eight colleges' annual meeting.

Miss Vera Whieter, from Arkansas College, served as the chairman of the meeting.

The discussion focused on the problems facing the eight colleges, with particular emphasis on the need for unity and cooperation.

The meeting adjourned at 12:30 p.m., with plans to meet again next year.

Eight Colleges Attend A.C. P. Conv.

Representatives from eight of the collegiate publication press met at Chicago College, 1001 S. Halsted Street, at 11 a.m. yesterday for the eight colleges' annual meeting.

Miss Vera Whieter, from Arkansas College, served as the chairman of the meeting.

The discussion focused on the problems facing the eight colleges, with particular emphasis on the need for unity and cooperation.

The meeting adjourned at 12:30 p.m., with plans to meet again next year.
YES, YOU MAY WRITE A LETTER...

You will notice in a glance at the next column that we have a "Letter to the Editor". This is the first letter to be printed this year, but we hope it will be the first of many that we will accept for letters. We will be glad to answer any question that any of our students, faculty members or others may have, and we will do our best to answer these letters in a satisfactory manner.

Anyone who would like to have a letter printed must send it to the Editor in care of THE LETTERS TO THE EDITOR, Student Activity Building, University of Arkansas, Little Rock, Arkansas, 72204. We will be glad to receive letters from parents or faculty members, also, and invite your opinions and constructive criticisms. Any suggestions or advice that you may have will be appreciated.

We believe that tightening college students have the right to discuss current events in an objective manner.

Hag·an, Kathy C one Associate Editor

th e beliefs of New Testament teachings, what would student-faculty stand for freedom, tolerance, and anti-discrimination.

We do not intend to pass judgment on this affair—it speaks for itself.

The cross was burned directly outside Krebs' dormitory, and the group who...
MEET ED AND CO-ED

By Kathy Casey

Wanda Parrs and Deidre Wight were so surprised when Ben Dillow gave them a phone number to call, they thought, "Bingo! He's our man!"

It turned out that Ben had a friend named Ron who was a reporter for the local paper and thought that Wanda and Deidre might be interested in writing for the paper. They accepted, and soon found themselves writing articles about the latest news and events in the community.

Daytona Beach, one of the most popular tourist destinations in the world, was the setting for this exciting new job. Wanda and Deidre were thrilled to be able to use their writing skills to share the stories of the people and places that made Daytona Beach such a unique and fascinating place.

As they worked together, Wanda and Deidre discovered that they had a lot in common. They both loved writing, and they both enjoyed learning about new things. They also found that they were both good at problem-solving, which came in handy when they had to deal with difficult stories or deadlines.

Over time, Wanda and Deidre became close friends, and they even started to develop a romantic relationship. They were both happy to have found someone who understood them, and they looked forward to spending more time together.

In the end, Wanda and Deidre's partnership as reporters was a success, and they both went on to have successful careers in journalism. Daytime Beach will always be a special place for them, and they will always cherish the memories they made there.
Seniors Down Game High School Squad 16-6 For First Win
Stone's Make Good Showing Against Once Powerful Champs

By Harry McVey

The five-star rating game that was so highly anticipated by fans of both the Redmen and the Sophs...well, let's just say it didn't turn out the way people expected. The Sophs came into the game as heavy favorites, having won their last four games by an average margin of 27 points per game. However, the Redmen put up a good fight, doubling their win record to 2-2 with a 16-6 victory over the mighty Sophs.

The victory was the Redmen's second of the season, coming just one week after they defeated a formidable opposition. With this win, the Redmen have solidified their position as one of the top teams in the region. The next game is set to be a tough one, as the Redmen face off against a team that has not lost in over a month.

The Sophs, on the other hand, are now 1-4 on the season. Their next game is against a team that has won all five games thus far. The pressure is on for the Sophs to bounce back and show that they are still a force to be reckoned with in the league.

Overall, the game was a thrilling one, with both teams giving their all. The Redmen's defense was on point, holding the Sophs to just six points. Meanwhile, the Redmen's offense exploded for 16 points, led by a dominant performance from their quarterback. The game is sure to be talked about for weeks to come, and fans are already anticipating the next round of games.

Stay tuned for more updates on the upcoming matches, and be sure to catch the next big game as it unfolds!