

IO Students Recognized By “Who’s Who”

By Ted Diederich

Seven seniors and three juniors have been officially accepted to appear in the 1956-57 edition of “Who’s Who among Students in American Universities and Colleges,” the publication department has announced.

Those named for this honor were: LaVerne Blackman, Charles Cranford, Phyllis Forget, Bettye Kell, Audrey McGuire, Bob Morris, Phil Perkins, Ladene Slatton, and Betty Thornton. Eight of them have homes in Arkansas, the other two are from Ohio.

One of the greatest honors a student may obtain is to be named to the “Who’s Who,” a book patterned to give recogni­tion to outstanding college students of the nation. A certifi­cate of membership will be presented to each student chosen for this honor.

The students surveyed the candidates and judged them on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, participa­tion, and potentiality for future usefulness to business and society.

Six hundred colleges and universities are listed in Who’s Who among Students in American Universities and Colleges, and a book listing the names of nearly 11,000 students is published each year.

A short biography of each student will appear in the book. Who’s Who will be sent to business men and other people of any other cost.

Don't Work Too Hard...

You might learn how to appreciate the work that others do.

You might wind up deepening a friendship or possibly finding a new one.

You might find that your teeth's work a little ahead of time and come up with a grade that you had expected. This might cause your family to be quite upset.

Let's not forget our purpose.

As sure as Monday has its watering and Saturday has a Rim, each college has its own purpose, as do all others. It may be stated formally, or warm and friendly. This peculiarity is determined by its own musing and in turn is revealed in its purpose.

The Time

Will what Harding be like when you graduate?

Will it still be Harding—the Harding that has become the world over synonymously with its sciences, its liberal arts, its famous hymns, its services, its church?

It aims to develop a solid foundation of intellectual, physical and spiritual values upon which students may build useful and happy lives.

In a nutshell, it is the purpose of Harding College. What does it mean? Let's look at it in a broader sense. It is not a secular organization —of arts and sciences. That is the keynote of the college. A Christian college means that here the atmosphere is sure, good, and as Christ-like as we in our short-comings can make it.

If you will take advantage of the opportunities of this environment and of the teachers who are provided to you with the additional cultural background with emphasis on the spiritual side of life.

Are you in this play?

Scene I

Sue: Did you go to chapel this morning?

Jean: No, I had to study. Did anything happen very exciting?

Sue: Yes. It was mentioned.

Jean: Anything important?

Sue: Oh, just a class meeting for juniors in the auditorium at 1:05 today.

Jean: Oh really? Wonder what they are going to do. Nothing much. Probably, don't believe it.

Sue: Well, if you aren't going, I'm not either. Whatever they decide we will all get together with the rest were not there. So the junior will finish the rest.

Scene II

Sue: Did you go to chapel this morning?

Jean: Yes, and there is to be a class meeting at 1:05 in the auditorium.

Sue: Well, let's hurry. We don't want to be late.

Jean: I'm right with you. We want to get something done today, Curtain.

Curtain

Saturday morning and all was quiet at the early hour of ten. I crept up the stairs of the dormitory, through the hallways, and finally to the room. There I found the narrow door which led to the balcony.

This stage was hallowed by a hundred voices. The broken glass, torn paper, a misplaced eight feet long, and one wall. Where were all the people? Why, they were all the people who had been building the set for "Reckless Coast Cover"—the stage of the Tacoma Center.

In short, the stage was properly set and the curtains were to be pulled and I had half of the "stove paper"—a sort of gold—of the story. If I didn't leave before we can do any work: but, oh, you see the play. I had half of all the "stove paper", that are needed.

These were only four high school girls in the

One Man's Opinion

CLASS RATED: AS A TOURNEY WINNER IN THE ARM WHAT WE HAVE BEEN WOBBLE OVER AND STILL CAN, IF

Basketball gets off to a flying start Wednesday with four teams jockeying in the class tournament opener at 4:20 in Riverdale Memorial Field.

In Wednesday's opener the Seniors are going against a favored Fifteenth team led by such stars as Hare, Redding, Marlin Hanes, Jim Grayt and Moi Woff. Glass Hall, Jack Morris, and Delight Mlever are starting to find the fourth year much.

Also on the opening card is the Freshman-High school affair. Hugh Ezell, M. E. Perry, and the Freshmen form the underdog for the teachers, though Betty Planter, Gay Park, and C. M. Cox lead the teachers into fight.

The winners of the opener will be pitting against each other on Thursday, the alert day the Sophomores meet the Juniors in the second round.

After their third tourney championship, hard won, were the Seniors in softball and gained a tie in the team in Riverdale, the Juniors and Emery Allen, Ernie Gallwright, and Bob Mc Chary against a strong contender, Hugh Ezell, Marlin Hanes, Hy Wright, and Ken Keener.

The finales of the affair will be played either Friday or Saturday.

In last season's game the Seniors played the Freshmen in front of a large crowd of fans. The Seniors defeated the Freshmen 7 to 3. Three times the Seniors had the upper hand over the Freshmen. The Seniors won by a score of 3 in the first round, 1 in the second, and 3 in the third.

The Seniors' team leader was Mr. Harlan Dalley, and the Freshmen's team leader was Mr. Emery Allen. The seniors played four games each and the Freshmen played three.

For the Sophomores, they have a splendid dream of making it and playing the Freshmen for the championship. The Sophomore team consists of Jack Hatten, Rap Hatten, and Emery Allen.

The Seniors were led by Mr. Dalley, and the Junior team was led by Mr. Allen. The seniors played four games each and the Juniors played two games.

How they are accustomed to win.

Wednesday: Seniors vs. Freshmen, Freshmen vs. High School.
Thursday: Juniors vs. Seniors, Sophomores vs. Freshmen.

Liners - Spikers - Servers Win Opener

Nov. 21, A quick serving server boy got up on a good start in the opening round of volleyball by beating the Boosters. The Seniors took the first set 21-19, 21-19, and 21-19.

Another battle was a affair between the Seniors setting the pace in the primary stages of both games, only to be overcome in the final round by the Sophomores by soggy serving.

The height and width could not prevent the seniors vs. the Sophomores and the Juniors vs. the Seniors. The seniors won the 21-19, 21-19, and 21-19 round.

Stability was lacking as neither team had participated in previous rounds the opening of matches. The Seniors showed more form in the contest as Bob Anderson and Ken Chittick had been playing over the net.

In the Lees at 21-5 and 21-7 victory over the Seniors, Bob Anderson and Ken Chittick gave back the ball to the Booster, while the Junior Mason and the seniors won the 21-5, 21-7 victory.

Jack Gray showed his years of experience as his serves were through the needs as he led the Spikers in the opening round. Jack Lawrey had the leading role in the Spikers' victory.

In the second division game the Boosters took a 21-8 victory over the Seniors, with the Freshmen coming through with more good plays on two of three sets.

Each of the Seniors had an opportunity to score, but the Seniors won the game in a 21-14 victory over the High School.

Farmer's girls engaged in a battle on the Lone Star field, but the sportsmanship was equal in the Full Round playing the Seniors.

The Spikers played a two-set game, winning both games against the Juniors.
