The Next Time You Go To A Play...

Sincerely yours,
"Sweetie" Collier

and MUSIC

by Bob Norris

In case you have wondered what significance there was to the small notice you’ve been seeing here and there announcing activities of a tempo, (may be written: A TEMPO) you can now find out. To provide an organization for the impromptu songmanship and the appreciation of music on the campus, music majors got President Benson’s approval of their newly written constitution of the tempo. The organization is now open to all major music majors and anyone else of good taste...

The Bison believes that there is a place and time for such actions, and has no idea of creating any social reforms; or for that matter bringing about any revolution in society. The thing that concerns us is seeing what they plan to say...

To Those Who Helped Us Out...

The Bison-sponsored program Saturday night went off fine. There were several handicaps that may have prevented us from having a larger attendance. First of all, the weather. This money the Bison received will be applied to buying the things we need very badly. It won’t be long before you’ll be needing very badly.

We appreciate the good work all of you are doing. It is a pleasure to say thank you for your good work and keep up the good work...

A woman tourist in Florida was admiring an Indian’s necklace. “What are those things?” she asked.

“Not quite,” he answered gravely. “Anyone can open an oyster.”

A car dealer in Graham, Texas, who was having trouble collecting installments, wrote a customer: “What would your neighbor think of me if I represented the g--?”

Two weeks later he received a reply: “All the neighbors think it would be a juicy trick.]

We have had some visitors at the campus. One of them was Mr. Margaret See, who has been a member of the Editorial Board for several years. She spoke and showed some fine examples of her work, and she was very happy to see us again.

Tommie Renter was another visitor. He is a member of the Knight's room, and he has been very active in the school. He brought some pictures of the Philippines, Egypt, and Palestine, and talked about his experiences.

Wanda Winterlander is doing a great job as the quiz master. She is very popular with the students and teachers. She enjoys it even more than the students do!

There was a discussion about the need for more rivalry between the schools. Mr. Tommie Renter suggested that we have more active sports and activities. Mrs. Margaret See agreed, and she thought that this would improve the spirit of the school.

The place cards were set up, and the program included solos and duets by the students. The music was very fine, and everyone enjoyed it.

The traditional crowning of a queen took place. The first social club function was held, and everyone enjoyed the evening.

The first major activity of the year was the Elmira Student Council banquet. The theme was “Southern Showboat.” The banquet was very successful, and everyone had a good time.

The program included singing, dancing, and a special feature by Joyce Tidwell, president of the Alpha Phi Alpha social club. The band was a real hit, and everyone enjoyed the music.
Scotmen In Command Of Celtic As Irish Meet Defeat, 33 To 29

Jan. 31—Things evened off in the Celtic League this afternoon as a no contest final was voted to victory for the first time in the history of the league. The game ended in a 33-29 victory for Celtic, the first time in the history of the league that the team has ever been defeated.

The final result was 33-29, with Celtic winning by a single point. The game was played in front of a large crowd of spectators who had gathered to witness the historic match.

AS LEVI'S WAGONS, THEY CALL HIM

Just finishing up some loose ends

JIM—In the words of Levi's advertisement, “the key to all this is to have a wallet made of as much basket as is expected to last a year”—and apparently that's what's happening. One game, and he's already in his first ball game. For those who didn't see it, he had a few moments of respite as he made his way to the showers after his first game. For those who did see it, it was a sight to behold. The crowd went wild as he stepped onto the court, and the players on the sidelines couldn't help but cheer him on.

“Aren’t you glad we have Levi’s?”

FRED—What a great idea! Levi’s makes it easy to look good at any time, any place. And they’re durable too. I mean, you can't beat that."}
