Dear Brother Close:

I can state that John Meadows is an active member of this congregation. He has had experience in preaching.

I must however in all fairness observe that he has never stayed in any one field longer than two weeks to one month. This may be due to a severe personal problem which he has.

He has been very co-operative in our work here. If I can be of any further help please let me know. This letter must be held in strict confidence.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
