STUDENT ASSOCIATION MEETING

SEPTEMBER 19, 1977

ALL PRESENT: Susan, Mark, Larry, Nita, Russ, Marsha, Lyndel, Fran, Boyd, Sarah, Steve, Ladonna, David, Dr. Barnes, Brad, Alan, Candy(Bison), Rhonda (KHCA).

The meeting was called to order by Susan at 5:45. Larry Waller led us in prayer.

First on the agenda was a big welcome to our new representatives. LaDonna England-Fresh. Women's Rep., David Cranford-Fresh. Men's Rep., and Steve Hughes--Married Student's Rep. We are happy to have them on the council.

Next, Mark made a motion to budget the JOY Fellowship Committee $100 to cover the expenses the fellowship has twice a year. This committee is responsible for an all day lecture for the women on Harding campus and the surrounding area. Any of this money not used will go toward the next semester. As the motion stands, this money has been allocated for this semester. The motion passed unanimously. JOY Fellowship will go through the Spiritual Life Committee for this money.

Committees: The movie committee reported that the movie last weekend was not shown because it did not show up. The movie this weekend will be "Herbie Goes to Monte Carlo" on Friday nite only at 7 and 9. SAC will be selling tickets to the New Orleans Symphony starting Wednesday in the Student Center. The program will be Saturday night at 8 P.M. in the Main Auditorium. The concert during pledge week will be Timberline.

HILARITY is just one week away, folks! It will start at 2:30 on the front lawn this Saturday. There will be lots of games, food, and competition. Mickey Pounders and Craig Jones will be the emcees and will also auction off all the lost and found items in the SA office. See ya there!

Be sure and see "STAR SPANGLED GIRL" this week. It is Monday thru Thursday at 8 P.M. in the little theatre.

"There are quiet hours and lonely hours,
And hours that have no end;
But the wonderful hour is the evening hour,
When you walk beside a friend."

Take time to be a friend to someone today!

For the SA,

Nita
