The Honorable Joe L. Evans
U. S. Representative
House of Representative Office Building
Washington, D. C.

Dear Congressman Evans:

I am writing this letter in regard to Mr. Haskell (Hackie) Newman of Cookeville. Hackie is a member of the Broad Street Church of Christ, and is the father of a fine Christian family. He is an active supporter of our town's civic betterment thru his multifarious activities in our local and state Jaycee organizations.

It is my personal conviction that any position of a public nature given him will be amply justified.

Please accept this letter as a commendation of said person.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
