STUDENT ASSOCIATION MEETING

October 10, 1977

All Present: Susan, Mark, Larry, Nita, Russ, Marsha, Lyndel, Fran, Sarah, Boyd, LaDonna, David, Steve, Dr. Barnes, Rhonda, Kandy

Nancy Lowry attended the meeting last night to get support for some resolutions to send to the President and Congress. This request was tabled until next week.

Homecoming is only a few short weeks away. Some of the activities planned for the weekend are as follows: Friday- The Black and Gold Banquet and the Chili Supper, A lilypool devotional at 10:30; Saturday- Alumni Breakfast 7:30-9:00, Alumni Chapel, the Parade- 11:00 (on Center Street), Bison Game at 2:00, There are many class reunions and other receptions immediately following the game, Blackout will be Sat. Night. The theme for this year's Homecoming will be "Try to Remember". The Homecoming play will be "FANTASTIKS" Kenny is doing a really good job with Homecoming--thanks Kenny!

All the President's Men will be showing on campus this weekend. Show time will be Sat. 7 and 9:30, with a possible show on Friday night. This is one of our more expensive movies so everyone try and come!

Tickets go on sale this Wednesday for the TIMBERLINE concert. You may get block tickets if you wish. The concert is scheduled for 7:00 Thurs. Night.

A survey will be taken sometime next week by the Spiritual life committee to get the opinion of the students about the religious activities that are on campus.

The food Committee met last week and make several suggestions which were readily accepted by both cafeterias. In patti Cobb, spoons are now with the forks and knives, we have homeade dressing (except French), Sat. Morn. the Cafeteria will be open till 8!, and there will be fruit once a week for breakfast. In Heritage, Salad bar will be open 3 days a week and there will be sandwich night every Sunday night. Remember that if you have any suggestions send them to Mark Miller or one of the members of the committee.

The SA would like to wish you all good luck this week as you go thru one of the traditions of Harding College--PLEDGE WEEK! Have fun and remember that it only lasts one week!

Have a good week!
For the SA,

Nita Allen
