Dear Jayne,

It was a genuine pleasure to assist you in your obedience to Jesus Christ last week. Knowing you to be the fine girl that you are, I confidently expect to hear of your many services to the Church throughout the years to come. If the Lord's work is to make the progress it should and must, young people like yourself who are willing to answer the call to service.

I sincerely hope that you will realize the importance of the Christian life and that your life will be a witness to the wonderful joy that comes from being a disciple of the Lord. Please feel free to call on me at anytime if I can be of help in any way.

Give my best regards to your Mother, to the Martins, and all my friends at Belmont.

Your brother in Christ,

John Allen Chalk
