ATTENTION: Mr. James E. Eaton

Dear Brethren,

I was very happy to receive your kind invitation to be associated with you in a gospel meeting. Since my schedule is full for 1961, I was also glad that you suggested 1962.

In keeping with your suggestion concerning either Spring or Fall, I would like to propose the following dates. I could be with you in the Spring from June 10 thru 17, 1962. I could be with you in the Fall from August 5 thru 12, 1962. These dates may not be early enough in the Spring or late enough in the Fall, if such is the case you may advise me.

I would like to ask one condition of you in connection with this proposed effort, would you consider allowing me to start the meeting on a Sunday night and, of course, continue thru the next Sunday night. This would allow me to be with the congregation here on the first Sunday morning. I will await your choice of one of these two dates or your suggestion of a third one.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
