Attention: Mr. James E. Eaton

Dear Brother Eaton:

According to your letter just received, I have scheduled our proposed gospel meeting for October 28-Nov. 4, 1962.

It has been very gratifying to me to receive your prompt replies and I trust that we will have the opportunity of working together in this effort, the Lord Willing.

I have just finished reading about the congregation in New Testament Churches of Today. This sketch causes me to anticipate our proposed effort with even greater interest. I send my regards to you, the Brethren, and your work.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
