Dear Jackson:

My promises of letter writing are almost as slim as my promises about anything else! I have been intending so long that the "tention" about got the best of me!

Sue and I are really looking forward to having you all down with us for a few days. We will get to go to the lake and play some golf plus a few other little things that might get done! So I really hope you get to come as planned. We have had a lot of company this summer, but you all are NOT company so we will thoroughly enjoy having you.

Between school and six meetings this summer I have hardly had time to look at my work here much less the family. But we are in the lull before school starts the 22nd of September. We hope that you can come down sometime before then but even after will be all right. I will have to spend some time in school would be the only hindrance.

I hope you are not having as much trouble at the store these days as I have with these "matrons" of the town. The ones that really have the "do-ray-me" are the ones that give me the "fits". Rather it is the one's who think they have money! But such is life among the southern pines! Hope to see you before too long.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
