STUDENT ASSOCIATION MEETING
January 30, 1978
All Present

Old Business:

PEPPERDINE SA will be on campus this week. They will speak in chapel this Wednesday. Wed. morning they will attend some of the Bible Classes after they have had a breakfast meeting with the SA at Harding. Wed. night at 9pm a slide presentation of Pepperdine will be shown, with cokes and donuts afterwards. All students are invited and encouraged to come. Let's make these students feel welcome.

WOMEN'S SPORTS. Once again Russ will meet with Dr. Ganus about collegiate sports for women at Harding. If you are interested in this at all please let Dr. Ganus know, by a letter, or a visit, because if no interest is shown then it will be pursued no further. When you write please be specific about your recommendations or suggestions. Please remember to let him know.

The Executive Council of the SA will meet with the Publicity Committee this Thursday night in order to look over the past semester and discuss activities for this semester. We need to thank the publicity committee for all that they do to keep us informed on the things happening on campus.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

SAC: Tim Holder is scheduled for the next coffeehouse which will be a Valentine's theme on Feb. 12. This will start off Friendly week.

MOVIE: Bob says the movie this weekend will be "THE ODESSA FILE" showing 9:30 Fri. and 7 and 9:30 on Sat.

SPECIAL PROJECTS: They are getting a notebook on Motivation, from the men who spoke at the leadership conference, that will be distributed to those who attended it.

SPIRITUAL LIFE COMMITTEE is working on "Family Commitment Seminar"

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS checked into having a dead day instead of dead week. Dr. Joe pointed out that semester tests don't start on Sat. in the Spring Semester so it wouldn't be necessary. He will keep this in mind for the Fall.

BOOK EXCHANGE: Please come by this week to pick up your money during the following office hours: MWF 10-10:50, MW 1:25-2:15
TT 9-9:50

FOOD COMMITTEE: Menues will be posted, subject to change. We need your suggestions!!
