How Shall We Believe?

By CECIL MAY, JR.

"Preacher boy!" How often have I heard that phrase used to express exasperation on the part of some parents in reference to their children who are delinquent kids who . . . And so it goes.

What dramaстве strange kids who might or might not be respectable members of a service to the wee hours of Saturday night, and doing nothing but hooking up with glooming, hopeless faces, and returnning home to the racket of the television set and the music of the juke- box, and bagging, and bogglerap! Are they young men, to be encouraged?

Bison All-Star Softball Squad

Allen, Vaughan & Camp; Holdovers

By BILL BELL

A very strong combination of hitting, pitching, playing and speed earned the first place in the All Star tournament which was accepted by Bison sports editor Al Potette as is print and post.

The dream team has three 1800 All-American players, four All-State pitchers and three stellar playing teams. The team珊s records were not even Assembling the national team, players decided last year's powerhouse man with the best

Catcher, Chuck Avis (Cubs)

Harry Olive (Cubs)

With an ability to scoop up the name, and can make the play look easy, Olive had the defensive edge on the other short fielders. He also capped off a 2-1800 season.

PITCHING

Bob Camp (Cubs)

One of the brightest pitching stars on the scene and 1800 average for the season. He was a unanimous number one vote getter.

Lefty Joe Allen (Phillips) and Bob Whitehead (Cubs) were the only two to make the All-Star ten. It was the only American defensive player. Bob Camp earned him the first place.

Right Handed, Dan Rank (Cubs)

Rank was an outstanding floor in the third and came through in the best of his ability. He had a 1800 average for the season.
