How Shall We Believe?

By CECIL MAY, JR.

"To thine own self be true", perhaps is the perfect description of your Father Heaven. There is no degree or perfection of devotion. Our one object should be to try to be better, without hypocrisy, without stain, without sin. But, if we cease to try to be better, we are liars, and the truth is not in us. Thus can we be perfect."

"I always thought I was a perfectly average, four on a shaft—two on each side. The two on each side were, of course, a lot more important than the other, the centers of course, the engine."

"Anybody who tells you that the law of the Spirit of Life is weak is an impostor; for we are free from it, and therefore it is our responsibility to carry the law of sin and death... If Christ is in you, you will not have the law of sin and death any more."

"The only fair solution is to do away with the Academy altogether and separate it from the college, so that a separate building is not needed."

"Debs deserve a word of praise. This girls' social club has taken it upon itself to publish a weekly paper and run the whole show, both socially and financially."

FAMOUS LAST WORDS

"I'm not going to wait till the last couple of weeks to do my outside decorating this quarter."

A Newspaper Is Born

The Academy deserves a word of praise—or more especially the Sunflower, the high school newspaper of the Academy. It is a purely local publication, the students are the authors, and the issues are printed, packed, and distributed by the students. The students who worked on this week's and the two previous issues have shown through their pages that a newspaper for the Academy can be a reality.

In the face of much derision and skepticism they have marked a milestone in the history of the Academy. It is their first attempt at anything of the sort, and in no way is their success to be considered a fluke. Had they been able to have a school newspaper before they began, they would have been able to start with a clean slate, and it might have been easier for them to have produced an issue of the paper.

"To make a fine gentleman, several traits are required, but chiefly a barometer."

"'Tisn't so much the color of the suit that makes a man, as the cut of it."

"A man who is a very good public speaker must be very careful about what he says when he talks."

The P. T. A. met last Wednesday evening to discuss plans for the upcoming heart disease. Mrs. Martin's fifth grade class was on hand to give a program for the team, which was to be held until the holiday by having the most money present.

"Bright Victory" is a thoroughly delightful play. We have seen it a total of two too little and a little too pat. The important thing of all the mistakes in even considering "Bright Victory" is to accept the impossibility of knowing in advance what is going to happen. Since "Bright Victory" is going to be a part of the orchestra of the school, the drama departments will be free from the necessity of being a "Bright Victory". A well-directed play can still have success and happiness if it can be given a proper introduction.

The picture is distinguishable by a few and sensitive performances by Arthur Kennedy who has given a splendid picture of a man fighting against a shuttering handicap and rising above it."

Recently the Look Achievement Awards were presented to the outstanding students of the junior and senior classes.

These awards, as far as we can tell, were presented to all students in the junior and senior classes, and the fact that they help to stimulate interest in the more advanced Academy courses.

However, included in this list are the awards for the most popular person in the junior and senior classes. There you should not be surprised. Best Supporting Actress: Miss Goldsmith. "That's My Boy!" Best Supporting Actor: Mr. Stone. "In Old Virginia," Best Camera Work: "Decision Before Dusk." Best Actor: Mr. Jones. "March, Death of a Statesman," and Actress of the Year: Vivian Leigh. "Vivacious Jillian."

W.H.C. Club Has Country Supper

The W. H. C. central club held a Country Supper on Friday, Feb. 22, at the Legion Hall. The room was decorated in a rustic style where members of the club and their guests gathered to enjoy the evening before sitting at the table. These guests were also entertained in country style.

The table itself was decorated and served with images of the countryside, creating a rustic ambiance. The menu included a variety of traditional dishes, including fried chicken, biscuits, and homemade pie.

The evening was filled with lively conversation and storytelling, with members sharing humorous anecdotes and tales of their farm backgrounds. The club members enjoyed a warm and inviting atmosphere, reminiscent of a bygone era.

Ireland overcame 11 Point Deficit To Champion Celtic 48-To-42
Welsh Defeated Without Service Of Williams

BY BILL BELL
Feb. 26.—The eulogistic hail of "Irish" that filled Liberty Hall in Chicago as the League's champion was announced for the Community of Champions for 1970-71 was merely a prelude to the attack today when the Irish took on the Celtics. A near-capacity crowd turned out in the services of McManus, a testy opponent, in the wake of the news of the impending battle of the Irish and the Celtics. The game was a highly charged affair, with both teams vying for the lead and the Celtic's airtight defense proving to be too much for the Irish.

The Irish were unable to score from the free-throw line and were forced to leave the game, which was a rare occurrence in the history of the Irish. The Celtic, on the other hand, was able to control its own destiny and score freely. The Irish were able to hit a few shots, but their defensive efforts were not enough to hold the Celtics back.

The game was a hard-fought battle, with both teams battling for the lead. The Celtic's defense was able to hold the Irish in check, but the Irish were able to hit a few shots and keep the game close.
