Meyers Chosen Council Prexy

Hazelbaker Veep, Roberts Elected To Scribe Post
Eighty Per Cent of Students Vote For New Record Turnout

By BILL REEL

A near-record vote today elected Rudy Meyers president of the Harding College Student Council for the 1952-53 school year.

Nearly eighty per cent of the student body voted in the poll and gave Meyers the victory over his three opponents, T. David Riley, Miller Hamilton, and Ben Fairley, all seniors.

The re-elected president, Meyers, who is a senior, is a native of North Little Rock, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Meyers.

The first in a series of post-war campuses meetings held by the university's councilors was attended by North Little Rock, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Meyers.

FAMOUS LAST WORDS

How Shall We Believe

by Cecil May Jr.

It was 6:30 in the morning. Lula had just woken to a realization of distance. The door banged and a voice of excitement filled the room. "Lula, you got to get up! Lula," she heard her friend say. "You got to get up. There's something I want you to see."

She opened her eyes and saw the face of her friend. "What is it, Betty? What's going on?" she asked, groggily.

"Oh, Lula, you've got to see this! It's the most wonderful thing ever!"

Lula sat up in bed, rubbing her eyes. "What is it, Betty? What's going on?"

"It's a secret," Betty said, smiling. "But it's something you'll never forget."

Lula got out of bed and followed her friend to the window. She saw a beautiful sunrise, with the sun rising over the horizon. "Oh, Betty," she said, "this is amazing."

"I know," Betty said, "but you have to promise me that you won't tell anyone about this."

Lula nodded her head in agreement. "I promise," she said.

Betty smiled and hugged her friend, saying, "Thank you, Lula. You've made my day."

Lula hugged her friend back, saying, "You're welcome. You deserve it."

The sun continued to rise, casting a beautiful golden hue over the world. Lula and Betty sat there, watching the sunrise, both feeling grateful for each other's friendship.

Men's Glee Club Has Reception Thursday

The reception Thursday evening for the Men’s Glee Club was one of the most enjoyable events of the spring term. The group, which was organized last spring, has been active in several musical activities, including the production of "The Mikado," which was performed at the Spring Concert. The reception included a potluck dinner, and guests were invited to bring their own dishes to share. The atmosphere was casual and relaxed, with members of the group mingling and enjoying each other's company.

Lambda Sigma Go To Blanchard Springs

Lambdas of the Alpha Phi Kappas Go To Petit Jean Camp Towadah

Twelve members of the Lambdas of the Alpha Phi Kappas (Petit Jean State Park) went to the Petit Jean State Park on Saturday, May 5. They spent the day hiking, swimming, and playing games.

The group took a bus to the park, and upon arrival at Blanchard Springs they explored the springs, the "Bambina" fly, and the upper waterfall. They then went to the swimming area, where they cooled off in the refreshing water. After swimming, they hiked to the top of the falls and then proceeded to hike to the lower part of Blanchard Springs. The group enjoyed a picnic lunch at the top of the falls before returning to the bus.

Silver Dollar 24¢ Student

For Barbara Richards

Miss Barbara Richards was honored with a surprise birthday party on Thursday evening, May 3. The evening began with a potluck dinner at the Student Union, followed by a program of music and speeches. The guests enjoyed a lovely evening, and Miss Richards was presented with a birthday cake and a gift.

Invitations to the event were extended to all members of the Delta Iota Club and their guests. The event was a great success, and everyone had a wonderful time celebrating Miss Richards' birthday.

Lambdas of the Alpha Phi Kappa Club and their guests went to Camp Cook, Arkansas, on Saturday, May 5, at Petit Jean State Park.

The group consisted of the following members: Emma Brinker, Sherry Hendrix, Betty Weidow, Sally Southard, Kim Mitchell, Bob Carnes, Linda Jarrard, John Bugg, Paul Turner, Thomas Rand, Maude Jackson, Wally Harris, Bob Doran, Delmer Browning, Bob Morris, and Bob Moore.

The group enjoyed a picnic lunch at the top of the falls before returning to the bus.

The party was a great success, and everyone had a wonderful time celebrating Miss Richards' birthday.

Braves Almost Out; Hillis Hurls 10-0 Win; Giants Rock em 11-4; Fans 17 In 2 Fitter

The Big News

The two teams were evenly matched for the first five innings, but what started as a game of defense for the Giants and offense for the Braves was all but over in the fourth.

Hillis pitched a fast ball over the outside corner, and Shutty tagged up and scored, and Wright then strode out to the infield.

The game ran along smoothly for the first three innings with the score tied one all, but the Giants broke loose in the last of the third and matched across the plate with the nose-breaking uppercut applied by the fiery Gene Jackson and Company. Jacksons relentlessly cut down these folks like hot bread on the calender and walked away with a 4-1. That's all, folks.

Shad was the instigator of two runs as he met the show for the first three innings and knocked the league leaders for a knock-out. The rebounding Giants got some breathing room.
