I. Pygmalian Given As First Major Drama Production

"Pygmalian," the campus players' first major production, opened last night before a large and appreciative audience in the college auditorium at 8 p.m.

The comedy of four acts, written by George Bernard Shaw, was under the direction of Miss Nelda Holman.

Featured in the cast were Jack Flinn as Henry Higgins, the speech teacher; Margaret Corgan, as Eliza Doolittle, the unfortunate girl; Emily Lynn, as Miss Shepherd, the housemaid; and Gene Robinson, playing the part of Pickering, Higgins' butler.

Other casts in the order named were Margaret Mancini, Miss Shepard; June O'shea, as Eliza; George T. Johnson, as Algernon; and Jack Flinn, as Henry Higgins.

Backstage crew included: Technical director, Meredith Cooper; stage manager, Jack Clarke and Albert D. Pierson; lighting, Jack Clarke and Al D. Pierson; Miss Shepherd, Margaret Corgan; Eliza Doolittle, June O'Shea; Algernon, George T. Johnson; and Henry Higgins, Jack Flinn.

Eisenhower Gets Nod From Voters; Harding Reflects Nation's "Thinking;" Democrats Are Still Good Losers

Results Echo Cry; As Harding Went So Nation Went

Presidential, election Dwight D. Eisenhower, until shunting at having broken the 20-year strangle of the Democrats.

American People Beckon Gen. Ike; "Time For Changing"

The American people have a problem.

Climaxing a campaign that it was time for this thing to be settled, the race was crushed into the win column for Ike this time in 20 years.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's victory over Adlai E. Stevenson, with a national tally of 442 to 89 and an electoral vote of 357 over 96 for the Democrats. The remaining 46 votes are evenly divided between the two. In the Senate the margin is an exact reversal of the 1948 tally. The Republicans have 43 to 47 in the Senate.

Rural Campaign

This year's most controversial presidential battle took place in the rural areas of the 48 states. The Grand Old Party exalted the "good ole boy" on a miniature national- wide tour. At every town stop from the county seat to the smallest village, the candidate would be recognized as legal any action taken that would be "in the spirit of the law." However, the" right to bear arms" was a constant theme in the campaign.

Gertie Finds A Sanctuary And Pastime - Ringing The Bell

B Y MARY ANN WATKINS

Religion is ever in the front line. That was the impression I gained of the state last night as I sat in the College of William and Mary chapel on the campus of a girls' school.

Gertie, a young lady attending the institution, was buried in the thoughtful note to her, they buried her in the white dress she had chosen for the night of the fatal accident.

But Gertie's death was more harmonious. Romans began to ring the bell of the old church. The> bell of the old church.

The only thing that was different from the morning before was that there was a loud Godden was the kind of ring that I was accustomed to hearing. It was a ring that I had come to expect.

But now, as I sat in the chapel, I noticed that the ring was different. It was a ring that I had never heard before.

It was a ring that was ringing the bell of Gertie's life.

I was glad that I was there. I was glad that I had come to expect that ring.
It's The Ninth Week, Not The Ninth Hour

For the first time in the history of the Blows the ninth week means something to all students. Under the present semester, this week marks a parting with the first semester and the beginning of the second. The ninth week is the week for mid-term exams. Too often this period is a time when the minds of students as to the value of mid-term exams when final exams are given at the end of the semester are no longer question. The students, and the subject, and the end of the semester is too late to do him any good. The freshman student especially are mid-term exams a help. For the time he will have learned at least a part of the curriculum, and the results must dig in and study. Exam results are a good indication to the freshman how he is getting along with his work and understand his subjects. It is also a test of the quality of the instruction and the students; whereby, we can have an idea of how well the student is prepared for the final examinations.

Mary Burton — "It would be much better if we could see the need and trends of promoting world peace."

William Holland — "We believe in the life of man and problems of other nations, perhaps then we could indeed understand their problems.

Bill Hedges — "I think it will give the students and faculty a better idea of the nation's foreign affairs on which we all need body."

Bruce Rhodes — "It is now. Watch the trend of national events."

Carlton Hill — "It is now. Watch the trend of national events.

It is the ninth week of the semester and we must begin to think of the quinquennial elections. We may have some question in the minds of students as to the value of the quinquennial elections. It is now the time to begin to think of the quinquennial elections."

If you write in the problem of the world, you are asking for some help. If one thing, there are some things about that puzzle. I guess that's why I'm writing this letter. I guess you can help me understand the problem.

I wonder if Christianity really means everything to anybody. I don't mean that people aren't good Christians. I'm talking about some ideas as to the character of every man, who is always willing to help anybody any chance they get. It may actually mean something to the family. Lest fall when Harwoord died it took me several months to get back on my feet again. Harold nor I ever one were Christians. I don't think he ever understood that. I knew that he was a fellow Christian, but he didn't know that I was a fellow Christian, build-side, or tile on the old car bi-efo­se — that as far as him and compan­ry.

Throughout the ninth week, the members; at a time when we seriously need that understanding.

Premiere

Society Staff

By BENNY HOLLAND

Society Staff

Some people believe that drama is a combination of unnaturalness and artistry. There are as many people who believe that as there are who believe that they are creating an illusion in their work.

With "Randy" Rhodes, '54, is now attending Memphis State College.

Julian Branch, Jr., '59, is preparing his final drafts.

Marten Bush, '53, is teaching the fourth grade at Vasser Public School, Vasser, Michigan.

Leon McEuen, Jr., '53, in serving his second year of teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard See, '50, are on their way to find a place to live in the New York City area.

Jacqueline Canada, '51, is laboratory technician at Hawkins Clinic in Steag.

I am afraid that I can neither confirm nor deny this report of completed training at Charity Hospital in New Orleans.

At this time we have no information on the students who are preparing their final exams. However, we have reason to look forward to professional success and happiness.

There is beauty and emotion in a building. A great building makes us feel at home in our own and at magnific­ cence and grandeur, and yet there was an architect behind that building who had spent his time in the study of the building.

Some statuses and monuments with their graceful lines and pleasing proportions make us feel inspired and even excessive of a great sculptor whose forms are so beautiful that they are yet beautiful, from out of a mass of stone.

A painter can portray the magnificent forms of a statue's anatomy by imitating the color and form as the oils are placed on the canvas with accuracy and skill, and you stand and gaze and amaze­

at the completion that pleases you so much.

How Shall We Believe?...

BY Cecil May, Jr.

A STUDENT WRITES HOME

Dear Dad,

I know that you have been waiting for several years for me to become a student, and I appreciate the fact that you have been patience in waiting for me. I have never done it yet. For one thing, there are some things about that puzzle. I guess that's why I'm writing this letter. I guess you can help me understand the problem.

I wonder if Christianity really means everything to anybody. I don't mean that people aren't good Christians. I'm talking about some ideas as to the character of every man, who is always willing to help anybody any chance they get. It may actually mean something to the family. Lest fall when Harwoord died it took me several months to get back on my feet again. Harold nor I ever one were Christians. I don't think he ever understood that. I knew that he was a fellow Christian, but he didn't know that I was a fellow Christian, build-side, or tile on the old car bi-efo­se — that as far as him and compan­ry.

Throughout the ninth week, the members; at a time when we seriously need that understanding.

Premiere

Society Staff

By BENNY HOLLAND

Society Staff

Some people believe that drama is a combination of unnaturalness and artistry. There are as many people who believe that as there are who believe that they are creating an illusion in their work.

With "Randy" Rhodes, '54, is now attending Memphis State College.

Julian Branch, Jr., '59, is preparing his final drafts.

Marten Bush, '53, is teaching the fourth grade at Vasser Public School, Vasser, Michigan.

Leon McEuen, Jr., '53, in serving his second year of teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard See, '50, are on their way to find a place to live in the New York City area.

Jacqueline Canada, '51, is laboratory technician at Hawkins Clinic in Steag.

I am afraid that I can neither confirm nor deny this report of completed training at Charity Hospital in New Orleans.

At this time we have no information on the students who are preparing their final exams. However, we have reason to look forward to professional success and happiness.

There is beauty and emotion in a building. A great building makes us feel at home in our own and at magnific­ cence and grandeur, and yet there was an architect behind that building who had spent his time in the study of the building.

Some statuses and monuments with their graceful lines and pleasing proportions make us feel inspired and even excessive of a great sculptor whose forms are so beautiful that they are yet beautiful, from out of a mass of stone.

A painter can portray the magnificent forms of a statue's anatomy by imitating the color and form as the oils are placed on the canvas with accuracy and skill, and you stand and gaze and amaze­

at the completion that pleases you so much.
initiation at Bee emerging for. I per r1 ges an Club. Records Meeting, at the home of their sponsor, readings by Paul Magee, song The initiation Joy Bell's birthday. bers with a supper in the Joe Cole, Sue salad crackers, cookies, mints, double occasion, also honoring Ann Dean, secretary-treasurer; cen ter, Majors galls to 'Lester given detailed instructions mints were serve d fro m a ta ble and by evening, ed 'by the hostesses to a Mrs. Hugh Rich esin, o i:na ? a, made in gray ribbon. After this engagement, Pledges were taken.

Kappa's Formal initiation in the home of Mrs. Magee. For the new members present were. When the pledges were taken, the new members were permitted a few words of lodge. Each new member was given detailed instructions on how to conduct himself and his duties. The new members were also given a list of the members of the lodge and were instructed in the pleasures of their membership.

Social Calendar

Next Monday, Nov. 24
Delta Chi Omegas I Chi pledge meeting on the home of Mrs. Lewis. New business brought up.

Tuesday, Nov. 25
Pi Delta - Club initiation at the home of Mrs. J. P. Swain.

Wednesday, Nov. 26
Kappa's Formal initiation in the home of Miss Nelda Holler's parent.

Sunday, Nov. 29
Campus Formal fish fry after church.

November 18
Alpha Phi Kappa - meeting in B. M. Millikan House. hosted by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lott. Refreshments served.

November 22
TKE Club - initiation of new member, Mrs. L. E. Tucker, was also present.

Galaxy Club holds Outing At Red Bluff The members of the Galaxy club spent the night at Red Bluff, Saturday night, 5 p.m., on the shores of the setting of the year. The food which consisted of minus was for all, including the boys. The cake was enjoyed by all. Club members who made the trip were:

P.S. Stovall, Bill Curry, Ken Argus, Jim Morgan, Margaret Buchanan and Al Brown.

Activities

(Continued from Page 1)

...and entertainment for the old members.

Whitney Hall was featured in the annual meeting of the year. The food which consisted of minute steaks, gravy, potatoes, and vegetables was enjoyed by all.

President Roosevelt issued an order to the White House to "order" and "execute" for any club members who might be present.

The honors of the new officers for the coming year were presented to the new members.

For the best in music, News and Sports: THE KEY KEEP TUNED TO 1300

For the best in music, News and Sports: THE KEY KEEP TUNED TO 1300

White House Grocery & Market

Home of Good Things to Eat We Deliver Phone 23

Always Welcome at the Idea Shop

Welcome Harding

ALLEN'S QUALITY BAKERY

"Our Business is to Serve You With Top Quality Products"

Phone 409 - 410

Let Us Serve You

SEARCY'S BEST FOOT-LONG

Barbecue and Hot Dogs EXTRAS THICK MILL & LAKES

FROSTED ROOT BEER AND ORANGE CRUSH

FROZEN DELIGHT

Highway 67 East - Searcy's New Shopping Center

"IT CAME FROM BURRS OF COURSE"

Make BURRS Your Headquarters For Your School Wardrobe

Slacks by Haggard, in all the latest Styles, Colors and Fabrics.

Come in today — see the flannels, tweeds, worsted and corduroy selection.

Complete Line of Corduroy Coats and Sport Shirts

Porta Hats — $5.00 - $7.50

From prices 5.95 to 14.95

Shirts from 1.98 to 6.95

Whitney Hall is the home of the Greek

Kappa's Formal initiation in the home of Miss Nelda Holler's parent.
Wildcats - Vols Score Victories To Force Play-Off For The Flag

By AL POTTER

The No. 11 University of Tennessee Volunteers, who had to be the victors of the second half to beat the No. 23 University of Kentucky Wildcats, did just that at Volunteer Stadium yesterday. The Wildcats, who had been in the lead for most of the game, were outscored 26-7 in the final half.

Defensively, the Volunteers were led by their two All-American ends, Fess and Biggs, who forced three fumbles, two of which were recovered by UT. The Volunteers were also helped by the absence of the Wildcats' star running back, Rusk, who was ruled out of the game due to an injury.

The Volunteers opened the game with a 65-yard drive, capped by a 34-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Stinson to tight end Waters. The Volunteers added two more touchdowns in the second half, one on a 20-yard pass from Stinson to Haines, and the other on a 30-yard run by Randle.

The Wildcats scored their only points of the game on a 26-yard field goal by Waters in the first quarter. They added another in the fourth quarter on a 25-yard field goal by Waters, but it was not enough to overcome the Volunteers' lead.

The Volunteers' defense held the Wildcats to just 261 yards of total offense, compared to their own 440 yards. The Volunteers' defense included seven tackles for loss and three sacks, while the Wildcats' defense recorded just two tackles for loss and one sack.

The Volunteers were led offensively by quarterback Stinson, who completed 14 of 18 passes for 241 yards and two touchdowns. The Volunteers' running back, Randle, added 95 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries.

The Wildcats were led by quarterback Nelms, who completed just 8 of 18 passes for 117 yards and an interception. The Wildcats' running back, Phillips, added just 10 yards on nine carries.

The Volunteers improved to 8-1 with the win, while the Wildcats dropped to 4-5. The Volunteers head to Georgia for their next game, while the Wildcats host Alabama.

The Volunteers' defense was led by their two All-American ends, Fess and Biggs, who forced three fumbles, two of which were recovered by UT. The Volunteers were also helped by the absence of the Wildcats' star running back, Rusk, who was ruled out of the game due to an injury.

The Volunteers opened the game with a 65-yard drive, capped by a 34-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Stinson to tight end Waters. The Volunteers added two more touchdowns in the second half, one on a 20-yard pass from Stinson to Haines, and the other on a 30-yard run by Randle.

The Wildcats scored their only points of the game on a 26-yard field goal by Waters in the first quarter. They added another in the fourth quarter on a 25-yard field goal by Waters, but it was not enough to overcome the Volunteers' lead.

The Volunteers' defense held the Wildcats to just 261 yards of total offense, compared to their own 440 yards. The Volunteers' defense included seven tackles for loss and three sacks, while the Wildcats' defense recorded just two tackles for loss and one sack.

The Volunteers were led offensively by quarterback Stinson, who completed 14 of 18 passes for 241 yards and two touchdowns. The Volunteers' running back, Randle, added 95 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries.

The Wildcats were led by quarterback Nelms, who completed just 8 of 18 passes for 117 yards and an interception. The Wildcats' running back, Phillips, added just 10 yards on nine carries.

The Volunteers improved to 8-1 with the win, while the Wildcats dropped to 4-5. The Volunteers head to Georgia for their next game, while the Wildcats host Alabama.

The Volunteers' defense was led by their two All-American ends, Fess and Biggs, who forced three fumbles, two of which were recovered by UT. The Volunteers were also helped by the absence of the Wildcats' star running back, Rusk, who was ruled out of the game due to an injury.

The Volunteers opened the game with a 65-yard drive, capped by a 34-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Stinson to tight end Waters. The Volunteers added two more touchdowns in the second half, one on a 20-yard pass from Stinson to Haines, and the other on a 30-yard run by Randle.

The Wildcats scored their only points of the game on a 26-yard field goal by Waters in the first quarter. They added another in the fourth quarter on a 25-yard field goal by Waters, but it was not enough to overcome the Volunteers' lead.

The Volunteers' defense held the Wildcats to just 261 yards of total offense, compared to their own 440 yards. The Volunteers' defense included seven tackles for loss and three sacks, while the Wildcats' defense recorded just two tackles for loss and one sack.

The Volunteers were led offensively by quarterback Stinson, who completed 14 of 18 passes for 241 yards and two touchdowns. The Volunteers' running back, Randle, added 95 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries.

The Wildcats were led by quarterback Nelms, who completed just 8 of 18 passes for 117 yards and an interception. The Wildcats' running back, Phillips, added just 10 yards on nine carries.

The Volunteers improved to 8-1 with the win, while the Wildcats dropped to 4-5. The Volunteers head to Georgia for their next game, while the Wildcats host Alabama.