Dear Sister Bradley:

Enclosed you will find a list of congregations in this county. I have indicated on that list that we can use posters at each one of these. I will be able to place about 20 here in town.

You have the correct information about the radio station. Mr. Mott is a member of our congregation. Mr. Tom Harris, chief announcer, is also a very faithful member of the Church. It might be a good idea to send some copy directly to Tom at the radio station in addition to the other material.

We now have two papers weekly. The Citizen is published Tuesday and the Herald Thursday. The two are now owned by Coleman Harwell formerly of Nashville and John Mott one of our elders. Enclosed you will find Advertising rates and copy deadlines for both papers.

If I can be of help in any other way please feel free to advise me. We are looking for a large crowd for the lecture.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
