Dear Bernice:

I was very happy to get your letter suggesting that the Brethren at Juno would be happy for me to come in 1962. I have now scheduled the meeting to begin the fourth Sunday in August, August 26, and end with the first Sunday in September, September 2.

My one request is that I be allowed to start the meeting on that fourth Sunday night. This would allow me to be here for our two morning services and only be away one full Sunday, September 2. You can discuss this with the Brethren and let me know at some later date.

We send you, your family, and the Brethren at Juno our best regards.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
