Dayton 14, Ohio

Dear Brother Warner,

It was a real joy to have the opportunity to visit in your home once again. It seemed exactly like old times when we sat around the table and "chewed the fat". Remembering your possible plans for the spring, I had no sooner arrived home than a good friend of mine, now preaching in Celina, Tennessee, stopped to visit with us. Even tho he has made no plans to leave the congregation, where he is now working, he is interested in moving to a place with greater opportunities for work. He has attended Freed-Hardeman College, Harding College, and Georgetown College. He is 32 years old and has a family consisting of his wife and two children. I know of no sounder preacher in the Brotherhood. I also talked at length with him about what would be expected at Northridge, and he seems to be looking for just such an opportunity. His wife has her degree from David Lipscomb and would be a credit to any Christian man. If interested you may contact him at the Church of Christ, Celina, Tennessee. The congregation where he previously worked is the Water Street Church of Christ, Lewisburg, Tennessee. His name is Charles Cheatham.

Our prayers and best wishes are extended to you and to the work at Northridge.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
