Mr. Clarence DeLoach Jr.
106 Bryan Street
Rossville, Georgia

Dear Clarence,

It was good to get your letter recently telling of the proposed Freed-Hardeman banquet for your area. I would make my plans to come except for the fact that we are planning a similar banquet here at the Tennessee Tech cafeteria.

I would certainly like to see you and talk over our old times together. Brother Leonard Johnson gave you an excellent recommendation when I saw him recently, at the Harding College Lectures. I know you are rendering a valuable service in that area. Please accept our blessing for a New Year. We hope that if you are ever near Cookeville that you will visit with us.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
