Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Lucas
Harding College
Box 693
Searcy, Ark.

Dear Ann and Chuck:

Our visit to Harding last week was a very pleasant one, especially did we enjoy it, because of the opportunity to be with both of you. Because Chuck will not be with us Christmas, I was especially glad to get to see him.

I certainly appreciated the effort you made to accommodate us. I know that it is always a problem to move out of ones natural environment, especially when both ones is as busy as both of you . It was certainly nice to have such comfortable quarters, and I want you to know that I am extremely grateful.

Sue and I send you our love and our hope that Chuck's trip will be a successful one. Even though we joked about it I want you to know that I am truly concerned for Chuck's safety and well being. Please remember that our prayers will be with you, Chuck, every day you are gone.

Fraternally yours

John Allen Chalk
