Salzburg, Austria, Marionette Theatre
Scheduled For Appearance On Feb. 3

From Salzburg, Austria, comes Salzburg Marionette Theatre to present here on Feb. 3 the third in this long series of outstanding performances. Herman Aicher directs the production.

In 1913, Anton Aicher created the Marionette theatre, and today his son persuades thousands of people yearly to see his performances. This year the puppets are in Austria, the group is in San Francisco. The result is the same high which makes them appear life­like to the audience. Adding to the realistic appearance of the puppets is the fact that they are made of a natural animal fiber called capes. Herman Aicher directs the productions.

Some of the puppets in Aicher's group are for sale and they are high which makes them appear life­like to the audience. Adding to the realistic appearance of the puppets is the fact that they are made of a natural animal fiber called capes. Herman Aicher directs the productions.

The Aicher's group are three and one-half feet in height, three feet deep and 12 feet high on which the puppets perform.

Many of the Salzburg Marionette presentations are the works of Blo­ cher. On the program for their performances are the following selections:

- Technerbuhov's universally popu­

"The Concert at Schonenbrunn," and "Rest­ ten and Rusticten."

Numerous Positions Need To Be Filled

Prof. J. D. Fum of the placement office disclosed this week that there are several available positions open to who are interested. A school in Arkansas needs a teacher to teach classes in typing, basic computer classes, and accounting. For a teacher with a degree the salary is $200 per month. This same school also needs a home economics teacher. A school in Arkansas needs a grade teacher. This position pays $400 per year.

One of the beauty shops here in Barnard is also looking for a teacher. One of the Christian colleges needs a teacher who pays $150 per month plus meals. They also need a person who can teach some class of shorthand and do secretarial work.

The Southwestern Company is interested in hiring young men to sell beer. This work will be done in part time work or full time during the summer.

The Permanent Peace Company needs a student to act as representative for their company in a field of a unique type of framing which they do

Harding Plans Expansion Program
In the Field Of Graduate Study

By LOUIS ECKSTEIN

"Since Harding College has now fully accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges thus giving it the recognition, since Harding now has one of the best plants in the South and a strong locaty, the next natural step is in the field of graduate study," states President George W. Benson concerning an expansion program announced recently.

Bible Department

The program is the outgrowth of the developing of the graduate Bible department into a School of Religion and the offering of a master's degree in education commencing with the initial fall semester of the master's degree in education. The only college to offer a master's degree in education with a Bible emphasis is the University of Chicago, and the School of Religion will be the only one to offer the graduate Bible program in the southern United States.

"Young preachers are fleeing the training of seminaries, and the Bible students are looking for a college offering the field of religion, Harding will offer the Bible program to meet the needs of these young men,

Education Graduates

"A large number of our graduates fully one-third – go into the teaching field immediately. Through the expansion of the education department Harding will offer the Bible students the opportunity to achieve their education at the main campus of Harding College which is located in the central part of Arkansas, and to gain practical training in the field of Bible teaching and administration to meet the needs of these young men.

Financial Requirements

It is thought that the financial requirements for this expansion program will be a minimum of $600,000.

(1) In the field of religion: a new library building at $200,000, $600,000 is needed including costs. Additional funds for new buildings required for

(2) The school now has one of the best plants in the South and a strong locality, the next natural step is in the field of graduate study."

Disturbing Elements And Christianity

By Andy Y. Ritchie Jr.

"These disturbing elements," chosen as the title for this little article, suggests bringing different things to the minds of dormitory managers, family members or the general public. How do we as Christians react to something that cannot be explained? If we consider it as unanswerable, we may refer to an obvious and consequently deviously conceived from the accepted forms of society or Christian behavior to those who gain the dubious designation of being 'Christians.'

Another use of 'disturbing elements' is possible; it may be applied to those who dare to differ in what they challenge the status quo or what they believe as a matter of faith. This is a great threat to others in this regard.

The club members of this journalistic endeavor, notwithstanding the importance of improving chapels in the lives of the students. The club as a whole, strengthened or encouraged as the daily need may be. This wonderfully helpful work is completely in the hands of what is sometimes disturbed and the disturbed is made manifest in a number of different ways. Have you ever thought about the fact that the period of this club is officially opened with prayers, and we find that it is perfectly quiet, but during the time that late-comers are finding seats, immediate personal inconveniences begins to be

Since quiet was obtained the first evening, we find that the club had to be achieved the second time by some remonstration from the members. While all the corps spirit was lost and could hardly be re- evoked, the club is going on. Of course, in the church class there is restlessness five minutes of profanity, the club rings. Those who could teach effectively the club are forgotten. Probably the real presence of death. The church has played a part in the making of Harting College, and it has been referred to as a "singing nation." Many years ago the passengers on a large ocean liner far out in the Atlantic Ocean were told that their ship had been damaged with a song. Shortly after the start of World War II, President Franklin D. Roosevelt said that the soldiers needed a song to lift their spirits when they were in the war, the club is the key to the spirit of Christianity.

Another Dream To Come True

As outlined in chapel and also in the Bison this week, the expansion program Harding is planning is the field of grassy work. We couldn't ask for growth in any better direction. The programs cells for a great amount of work as well as many which now is in the process of being obtained. Before all the new buildings were erected on the campus, they were merely a dream. A dream which materialized.

Here is another dream, but it, too, is about to become real. May the "wakening-up" time not be very long hence. Thanks, Student Council, for having an active committee, and we mean active, working to keep the jube box records changed and up to date. When we express the feelings of those who frequent the inn — whether to go in the student center for mail or that daily ice cream cone. It’s nice to have something coming in and out of Harding Buren, and his "team" who have worked to get this program in action. They are working for Harding College, and we will continue working even after the goal has been reached. We appreciate what you are doing for Harding College and its students.

Tri Kappas Take Guests to Rome For An Evening

"Three Coins in the Fountain" was the theme of the Tri Kappa banquet held Jan. 14 in the Blue Room of the Rendezvous. The scene in "heart of Rome" and the table decorations were in harmony with the theme as the group enjoyed an Italian menu.

The center of attraction was a fountain with streams of water flowing down the rocks below set off by indirect lighting.

Those present and their dates were

Betty Helm, Buster Glover; Lois Coburn, Ronald Cobb; Pytie Prevett, Carrol Eades, Jaina Stevy, Stan Shewmaker; Carol Stubbsfield, LeRoy Alexander; Gaven Coburn, Jean Lyle; Norma Carpenter, Weldon Hatcher; Rosa Beno, Doyle Border; Yvonne Davis, Charles Pittman; Annette Henderson, Wallace Alexander; Joan Westbrook, Jim Haynes.

Kathryn and Elena Otisbrick; Alta Chock, Ralph Hartman; Betty Weldon, Tom Brown; Helen Rice, Ken Ward; Miss Jo Go Ju, Jerry Perry; Bonnie Darnell, Neal Reeves; Quil Ie, Jimmy Smith; Flore Rutherford, Bert Hegle; Joan and Sam Haynes; Lolita Williams, Mexico Baldwin; Mary Ellen Fletcher, Joe Darrah; Camille Anderson, Jack Murdock; Dr. and Mrs. Cliff Janus and Dr. and Mrs. James Burrow.

Miss Burton Marries Mr. Johnny Dunlap

Miss Mary Burton and Mr. Johnny Hall Dunlap were united in marriage Dec. 29 at the home of the bride’s grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Burton, Shackle-ville, Tenn.

The long stairway was decorated with holly and the pillar held a red bow. The bride walked down a pathway marked by holly wreaths, cedar, smilax and white candles.

Miss Jacque Sloan, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mrs. David Brown, bride’s godmother, was honored as bridesmaid.

The bride’s attendants were attired in two-tiered tulle lengths trimmed. The bodies were made with scooped necklines, the skirts a lighter shade of nylon net over satin. The attendants carried red roses.

Julian Dunlap served his brother as best man. Dr. Burton Grant, cousin of the bride, Bill Glenn and Reynold Tanner were the groom’s attendants.

Batisteкур Sussex officiated, and the bride was given away by her grandfather.

The bride wore a ballerina length nylon not over a satin skirt, while the long-dressed bodies was work in the form of Leafl and the scoop neckline was draped with illusion lace. 25 at the front was a modified spanish halo veil, and she carried a large white rose.

At the reception following the wedding, the Medusoina Gloria Gatski and Mary Dickerson, cousin of the bride, assisted the Medusoina. The bride, Miss Marita McCaskey and Perry, JoAnn Roark and Norma Scroggs were given a six-tiered wedding cake. The table was decorated with small white and candles on a white tablecloth.

The couple went to Chattanooga. The bride wore a blue wool traveling suit with sky blue accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunlap are at home at 1492 Woodmont Boulevard, Nashville, Tenn.

Dr. Mattox Reviews "Doctors of the Mind"

The library staff was host to approximately 100 guests Jan. 13 who came to hear Dr. F. W. Mattox, dean of students, review Marie B. Ray’s, "Doctors of the Mind."

Preceding the book review was a tea in the lobby of the library, attendance in welcoming guests members of the Galaxy, Frater Sodalis, KHI and Ju Go Ju social clubs.

The refreshment table was covered in the heart of Rome and guests were treated to a white cream arrangement flanked by baskets of red roses. Pouring coffee and tea from the service at each end of the table were the Misses Rita Jo Baldwin and Gill Ross.

In the review, Dr. Mattox told something about the author, stating that she was a student of the history of psychology, Mrs. Ray has also written "How to Live Two Lives in One."

"Doctors of the Mind" is a story of psychology showing what has happened in the development of the human mind to the present time.

The book reviews the conflict of the psychologists and physiologists in their search for the mind.

ACADEMY News In Brief

In chapel Wednesday, the students were given ballots to vote on the favorite, best-all-around, wisest and cutest students. Everybody is eager to know who will win the honors.

Last week the students and faculty attended the college chapel and enjoyed hearing J. Q. DuPont speak on the Dupont company history.

There were also several social events. One was the first all-schools event for the year.

The junior girls had a bunting party at the Pitner’s home Sunday night. Thank you, Mrs. Pitner, for a wonderful time.

The Wildcat defeated the Deer School at Little Rock Tuesday night and Cotton Plant have Monday night.

Social Agenda
Full As Mid-Year Arrives At Harding

Club business agendas are usually full to overflowing now! Between banquets and elections, May Court members, business is really on the boom.

The Alpha Phi Kappa social club has chosen Feb. 19 as their banquet date. The gala event will be staged in the Kiwanis Room of the May-Fay Building.

The L.C.'s met Saturday night with Alice Degenhart, Norma Crossby and Lillian Cornett acting as hostesses. The future election of officers and club membership for the second semester were discussed. Rehearsals of punch, cookies and small sandwiches were served by the hostesses.

The Regina social club met Saturday night to discuss plans for the second semester. A complete turnover of officers for the coming term was elected. Capturing the top honor was Ramona Thompson, with Lora Ann Oliver as vice-president. Virginia Baker chose as secretary-treasurer, and Ann Belcher and Mary Ann Smith will act as reporters. Banquet plans were discussed in detail. A banquet will be elected to the May Court.

The Omega Phi pi met in Clay Blake's room to discuss a show for club member Mrs. Richard Walker and other officers. The program offers for next semester are Marjorie McIlwaine, president; Virginia Lee, vice-president; Clay Blake, secretary-treasurer; Carole Burchett, Rita Jo Stephens, song leader; and Janie Belcher, reporter.

GATA social club met Jan. 15 in Cathcart Hall at which time plans for the banquet were completed. Mrs. Eddie Baggett, club sponsor, was given a silver place setting for her birthday.

After the business meeting, refreshments were served by the hostesses. Misses Lee Albright and Ginger Jackson.

Stairway To Stars Is Ballant Theme

Under a blue sky sprinkled with silver stars, the Mu Eta Alpha Phi club crowned their dates with a banquet Jan. 15 at the Rendezvous. At one end of the room was the stairway "in the Blue" which showed a blue sky frontier in a sky blue dress.

At the top of the stairway was a large, white halloween and star representing the club emblem. In the center of each table was a blue candle surrounded by angel hair sprinkled with blue glitter. Prof. Jim Atteberry crowned Dot Hall and Dave Darragh queen and king of the banquet.

Pat Young, president, welcomed the guests, and the program was given by Eugene Bailey, mistress of ceremony. Carolyn Gray, introduced the program.

Zena Street sang "Blue Moon," and "Gnomes Enchanted Evening," was sung by a trio composed of Bobby Ehrig, Zena Street and Grace Ann Howard. Barbara Ehrig played a solo piano, "Bravura."

Those attending were Pat Young, Eugene Bailey, Carolyn Gray, Jerry Pearson, Betty Weaver, Rayburn Knight; Frances Watiey, Joe Burroughs; Grace Ann Howard, Jim Gilson; Joan Dalton, Pat Stewart, Barbara Ehrig, Bob Zettl, Wanda Wagahty, David Hale; Glenda Moore, Buzz Travis, Janice Young, Mary Jo Dobyah; Zena Street, Bob Davis; June Smell, Jim Bihlrat; Dot Hall, Dave Darragh; Dot Jordan, Bonnie McCurry; Johnny Young; Mr. and Mrs. Atteberry.

McNally-Hunter Plan February 10 Wedding

Wildcats Have Tenth Victory

Jan. 17 — Harding Academy Wildcats rocketed to their 10th basketball quiet tonight over the tumbling Cotton Plant Scrapper, 56-46.

Freddy Massey spearheaded the Cats’ attack with a variety of hooks and trips that totaled 23 points, high for the game. Gerald and crips that totaled 23 points, who stashed away 15 markers on 10-1 of the game and then poured it on circles, held a non-varsity squad, 31-27.

PLEASE KEEP HON. SHIRT ON . . .

Woe is me . . . I knew it. Last week, if you will be so kind as to remember, I attempted to make a few predictions as to the outcome of the now current hardwood season. Lo and behold the ink wasn’t even dry and the papers as you weren’t drawn on the floor of the student union when in his. The telephone jangled, Western Union rushed in and I don’t know what talk! . . . Probably if someone had thought of it there would have been a few phone pen letters slipped under the portal of 105 Armstrong.

This was the order of events last Friday night when I got home . . .

As of some one violently rapping, "Once upon a midnight dreary, while I pondered, nearly napping, over many a quaint and curious volume of forgotten lore — " Upon opening the door there stood, I supposed, a would be ant, glowering at me with a tattered (probably from a fit of rage) Bison uniform when it hit. The telephone jangled, Western Union rushed in and I don’t know what talk! . . . Probably if someone had thought of it there would have been a few phone pen letters slipped under the portal of 105 Armstrong.

While I nodded, nearly napping, "Once upon a midnight dreary, while I pondered, nearly napping, over many a quaint and curious volume of forgotten lore — " As of some one violently rapping, "I sheepishly have come here in righteous indignation . . . etc. and I . . . And so it went indefinitely. What proceeded would have rivaled any one of Billy Shakespeare’s soliloquies. When the first break came I inquired of him, "Have you tried Campus Players lately?" I sheepishly had to admit that he was exiled.

When his blood pressure dipped below boiling, we discussed the teams and their merits and deficits. He finally pulled out after two hours of concentrated explanation. He was told that that’s the way we see it and that’s the way it was going to stay.

The other day it took 30 minutes to make the ordinarily two and one-half minute trip from the student union to the dorm. One character went so far as to ask what I meant by “HMMmmmm.” After looking at the sky, grass, dorm and him I said, "HMMmmmmm means . . . well . . . it just means hmmm." If one of you will take time to check the standings you will find that we were only one place in Harding’s last two weeks. Not counting the Minors . . . Besides this is only the first week of the schedule. There are six more to go on it. Bo in the words of our gallant Oriental friends, "Keep honorable shirt on . . . pliz . . ."
