Dear Brother Merritt:

It was a genuine pleasure to meet you this past weekend and to be associated with you for a short time. Please accept my apologies for being unable to work with you in behalf of the college. We do hope that your visit to Cookeville was worth while and invite you back at any time.

The Ladies' Bible Class appreciated your pictures and talk. Several highly favorable comments have been made concerning your presentation to them.

We are happy to have had the opportunity to get acquainted with you and send you and the school our very best wishes.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
