Mr. and Mrs. Brad Brumley
Freed-Hardeman College
Henderson, Tennessee

Dear Betty and Brad:

Needless to say your work here at Broad Street was greatly appreciated. I think that you were able to discern that from the kind of response our people gave your work here. Largely as a result of your efforts Brother and Sister Howell will be moving to Cookeville sometime between the first of August and the first of September.

Sue and I were happy to have you and Susan in our home. It was no extra trouble of course and our associations with you were enjoyable. Please accept my sincere gratitude for your willingness to come and for the wonderful help you have already been to our situation here.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
