
John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

9-21-1960

To: Alex Jackson

John Allen Chalk

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

Recommended Citation

Chalk, J. A. (1960). To: Alex Jackson. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/628>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

Sept. 21, 1960

Mr. Alex Jackson
2709 Coronette Ave.
Dayton 14, Ohio

Dear Alex:

We were certainly sorry to learn of your mother's passing. Even though one is more or less expecting it, death always brings a shock or grief that can not be helped. Sue and I both send you our deepest sympathys.

I hope that Ruby and the girls are doing just fine. With them ready for school Ruby is going to be lost in the day time. But knowing the way she keeps a house clean I am sure she will be able to use all the free time and then some.

Our work here seems to be going as good as I expected. My school is also keeping me busy. Between the school work and the church work I have become a very busy man.

I just wish Vevia and Vivian could see our little Mary Elizabeth. She now weighs around 19 pounds and laughs all the time. Her eyes are dark brown and she is really a "corker."

I just wanted you to know that we were sorry to learn about you loss and send you are heartfelt sentiments.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk