11-7-1956

The Bison, November 7, 1956

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.harding.edu/thebison

Recommended Citation

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives and Special Collections at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Bison by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.
Mrs. Rockefeller Visits Harding

Mrs. Winthrop Rockefeller, in a surprise visit, traveled to the campus of the Academy the other day for a tour of the campus. Mrs. Rockefeller is on the board of directors of the Harding Academy and was welcomed by the students and faculty.

Bison Circulation Reaches New High

The Bison, the student newspaper of the Academy, has reached a new high in circulation. The newspaper, which is published bi-weekly, has seen a steady increase in sales over the past year. The increase in circulation is attributed to the increased interest in local news and events.

In other news, the Academy baseball team has qualified for the state playoffs. The team has been practicing hard and is looking forward to the upcoming games.

Assignment Harding

Harling Girl Advises Men How To Do It

By JACQUE ANUSH

I heard about the ants in Armstrong last week. Apparently, they were having a feast on some leftover food. I never even heard about such a thing before.

The ants are probably just trying to take advantage of the situation. It's not uncommon for ants to be drawn to food sources. But, as I always say, never waste food. It's a waste of resources.

The ants may be a problem for some, but I think it's important to remember that they are just trying to survive. We should try to coexist with the ants, rather than trying to get rid of them.

In summary, never waste food. It's a waste of resources. And remember, coexistence is key. Even with ants.

In other news, the Academy is hosting a community service project this weekend. Volunteers are needed to help clean up the local park. Please consider volunteering.

American Studies Students Tour Louisiana Mississippi

Twenty-two students and two faculty sponsors last week made a tour of New Orleans, Baton Rouge, Jackson, and Mississippi. The group visited numerous landmarks, including the French Quarter, the Mississippi River, and the University of Mississippi.

The trip was a success, and the students learned a lot about Louisiana and Mississippi. They also gained a deeper appreciation for the cultural diversity of the region.

In other news, the Academy is hosting a fundraiser this weekend to support the school's athletic program. Please consider attending and supporting the team.

The Harding Academy choir will be performing on Sunday at 3 p.m. in the chapel. Please come and enjoy the music.
Chapel Conduct, Good Or Bad?

Have you used chapel, or abused it?

The preceding question is one that should be carefully considered by every person who attends chapel, either student or faculty. Many a student have used chapel only for the reason that they will be dropped if they miss too many times. True, chapel attendance is compulsory, but nevertheless, this should not be the only driving force urging students and faculty to go. The advantages and disadvantages of compulsory chapel attendance is not what is under consideration at this time, but chapel attendance.

Now, back to the initial question: Have you used chapel or abused it? It is indeed possible to both use and abuse chapel as shall be noticed.

First, how can one use chapel?

Chapel is a period set aside in the day for a definite purpose. Whether one is using it for entertainment, for profit, or to serve some other purpose—which should mean much to everyone that attends.

Here is an opportunity to pause in the midst of a day’s activities and obtain strength from God, We come together to thank Him for the blessings He has given. We can praise Him as indeed the Scriptures teach He must be praised. Yes, chapel can be used to the advantage of each student to pacify and worship God because of who He is. Do you truly worship Him as indeed the Scriptures say you must do?

This now brings around the problem of abusing chapel. How is it done? abused chapl? Abused chapel is abused each time students come together and do things for which the period is not intended. To be more specific, it is abused each time someone comes in, and instead of preparing to worship God, reaches for a book with the intention of studying. Chapel is abused each time someone reads a paper or magazine when he should be worshipping God.

Usually, the students who study, read newspapers, or sleep in during chapel—chapel is being abused! That’s your conception is far from the truth. Worship in chapel that it might be a worship period, we are blaspheming God. Is she hears such remarks as “It’s sufficient to say that there were quite a few comments on that program. This year there were several announcements concerning clubs, and other groups which were to meet during the period after the devotional period. The announcements of various activities continued to be presented. It went on and on. The last announcement ended just ten minutes before the period normally ends. Usually there are 25 minutes allotted for this time. But thanks to the Personnel Director, Jim Justus, this program of announcements was one of the most remarkable of the year. Dr. Doyle Moore has broken the record! He has probably made a longer announcement than anyone other person on the Harding stage. As he proceeded, the usual list of announcements was broadcast. The last announcement to be presented was a fifteen minute talk. This week the Harding Campus. It’s sufficient to say that there were quite a few comments on that program. This year there were several announcements concerning clubs, and other groups which were to meet during the period after the devotional period. The announcements of various activities continued to be presented. It went on and on. The last announcement ended just ten minutes before the period normally ends. Usually there are 25 minutes allotted for this time. But thanks to the Personnel Director, Jim Justus, this program of announcements was one of the most remarkable of the year. Dr. Doyle Moore has broken the record! He has probably made a longer announcement than anyone other person on the Harding stage. As he proceeded, the usual list of announcements was broadcast. The last announcement to be presented was a fifteen minute talk. This week the Harding Campus.
Banquet Plans Discussed At Social Club Functions

Delta Chi Omega

Kappa Phi

Saturday night, Nov. 3, the Delta Chi met and discussed plans for their project, third function, and birthday supper. The latter will be held on Nov. 15. They also made plans for a volleyball team and plans to participate in this sport wholeheartedly.

Along with the other new members, Nancy White was initiated into the club, and Betty Davis, the sponsor, was made an honorary member.

W.H.C.

This week's regular meeting of the W.H.C. social club was held in the den of the home of Mrs. W. B. West. Refreshments of hot spiced apple cider and pecan cookies were served while business discussions were being carried on. This week's business began with plans for ordering stationery, jackets, and club pins. Committees to be in charge of each meeting's refreshments and decorations were appointed.

Future functions were discussed, including plans for a party with the Omega Phi Club, and preparation for the big event of the year, the Country Bopper.

Cato's Barber Shop

We Welcome Harding Students and Appr...

Your Business. 218 W. Arch

Holiday Apparel Arriving Daily

Free Alterations and Lay-Away Plan

THE ELIZABETH ANN SHOP

Three doors west of Rialto Theater

OUR AIM IS TO PLEASE

Prescriptions - Drugs - Gifts - Toiletries

TWO GOOD DRUGSTORES

HEADLEE WALGREEN

North Spring

HEADLEE REXALL

North Spruce

Tri Kappa

The first Tri Kappa function since the acceptance of the new members was a banking party held at the Gamma home Sunday night, Oct. 28. After a splendid supper and an impromptu recording session, the regular business meeting was held.

The movie, "Martin Luther," sponsored by the Tri Kappa, is planned for a free showing on Sat., in the large auditorium. So you'll come.

Lax Companons

The L. C.'s met Sunday night in a regular business meeting. Plans were made for the banquet and a tentative date, Jan. 12, was set. The Round-Ro bin letter, which was written by the members during the summer, was used. A club volleyball team was chosen for the intramurals.

Refreshments of punch and tiny crackers with a cheese spread were served by the hostesses, Irene Lawson and Diane Burns.

Betta Tau Gamma

Betta Tau Gamma members met Tuesday evening to discuss plans for the club's activities. Faye Condrey was elected as sergeant-at-arms.

After the business portion of the meeting, the members enjoyed refreshments and "socializing."

Mohican

The Mohican women's club met Monday night for a regular meeting and the election of officers for the coming year. The following officers were elected: President, Jane Moyer; Vice-President, Marjorie Smith; Secretary, Frances Heishman; and Treasurer, Freda Adkins.

The purpose of the club is to do community work within the community;

Haile Furniture Co.

"The store that sells for cash and sells for less"

108 E. Arch St. Phone 211

Haile Furniture Co.

"The store that sells for cash and sells for less"

108 E. Arch St. Phone 211

Toby's Cobby Vows Pledged

Miss Christie Toby of Memphis, Tenn., became the bride of Mr. R. C. Coble of Indianapolis, Ind., in a formal ceremony on Aug. 31, 1956.

Miss Toby was a Freshman at Harding last year where she was a member of the Omega Phi social club. Mr. Coble received his B.S. from Harding last year. He was president of Alpha Phi Kappa social club.

Previous to entering the service Nov. 6, 1955, Mr. Coble was employed as Assistant Engineer for General Motors in Indianapolis.

Moore And Davis Elected To Officers Of Music Assoc.

Dr. Eloise Moore, head of the Harding music department, was elected president of the Arkansas College Music Teacher's Association in a meeting at Little Rock last Saturday.

Kenneth Davis, also a member of the Harding music faculty and director of the a cappella chorus, was elected secretary at the meeting.

The purpose of the Arkansas College Music Teacher's Association is the advancement of the teaching of music and music in general in the state. The Association usually meets twice each year and at least one of the meetings is conducted in the form of a workshop.

Dr. Marion Dinnen, John Brown University, was elected vice-president of the organization.

AL & DEAN CAFE

For The Best Meals Ever.

Hwy. 67 South

99 ESSO

Friendly Service

STERLING STORES

"Be Thrifty"

Searcy's Leading 5c - $1.00

STOP! SHOP! and SAVE!

with

STERLING STORES

"Be Thrifty"

Searcy's Leading 5c - $1.00

Free Cooling System Inspection, Hose Tightened, With Installation of Prestone.

HART AUTO SERVICE

(A Harding Alumnus)

Day Phone 420 Night Phone S4-S-W

HARDING COLLEGE LAUNDRY

Greg Rhodes, Mgr.

"The Best In The Business"

November 7, 1956

HARDING BISON, Searcy, Ark. 3 • 3

Society

By SLY DARY

Halloween Is Theme For Dramatic Party

The Green Room was the setting of the Campus Players' Halloween Party Thursday night, Nov. 1, Jack-O-Lanterns3 adorned the walls and a college of witches and devils, the guests, danced and sang their way through the night.

The costume contest was the big event of the evening. The winners were chosen as follows: 1st place, Mrs. W. B. West; 2nd place, Miss Betty Davis; 3rd place, Miss K. S. Swanson and Miss K. A. Anderson.

Refreshments of punch and tiny crackers with a cheese spread were served by the hostesses, Irene Lawson and Diane Burns.

Cup cakes and punch were served while Halloween mints completed the theme.

Approximately forty Campus Players and apprentices enjoyed the party.

JU Go JU

The Ju Go Ju meeting was held Saturday night in the home of their sponsor at Armstrong Hall. Please were discussed for the banquet. A formal theme, date, and speaker were chosen.

In pictures were shown of the formal initiation and pledge week.

Fourteen girls made plans to represent Ju Go Ju in the volleyball tournament. Martha Wetherell was chosen as club representative to the Student Health Association. Following the business meeting, refreshments were served by Nina Harvey.
SOMETHING FROM WHERE I STAND

By ED WYNN

How often do you attend the movies? How much did you ever think about the wisdom of them? To give us a little something to think about in the beginning this week we quote an excerpt from the Arkansas Democrat. Published last summer by Kerr Shannon, a feature writer. Under the heading of "Bizarre Tactics of Movie," he writes the following: "In times past I have often discovered upon the peculiarities—natural—things actors do on the screen. This goes for both theatre and screen. Take, for instance, the manner of courting. The lov- elive-dives sing their sweet nothings to each other. Wotting by song is strictly movie stuff. I have never seen it happen in real life, or heard of it happening in real life. It's the movie-star's or real life not real life. And..."

"Have you noticed the new mode of breathing? It is put on lavish display in the picture 'Traps.' The comedy and campaign of Gina Lollobrigida is the object of both Bugs Laramie and Tony Curtis. Then, she lies like covers off the oil. And here's something else—George Washington had two horses shot from under him in a single battle. It's nothing unusual for a horseman fighting a gun battle to get a horse shot from under him—except in the movies."

"In real life, it's the opposite. Guns are flashing all over the place. Riders topple from their steeds, but their steeds scramble off unscathed..."

"Since it is harder to suffer a horse to play dead than to teach a rider to play like his shot, we should overlook the spurious aspects of the movie short-hand. But cerebral kissing and wooing by song are inconceivable..."

Before I am labeled "radical" more than I already am, I heartily add: "He said it, not me." But, just as hardly anything we said with all his implications."

Here is the reason. If the wooing by song and the precocious love scenes of many movies were "out" there would be nothing left. Both are definitely off-springs of the "real" life and not "real" life. As far as the men always being shot off the horses, maybe Shannon forgets to realize that all movie actors—and criminals—are expert marksmen. This should also be taken into consideration."

"Maybe all the above is rather curious, but it does serve to introduce a problem that faces thinking persons today—especially those trying to follow a high moral standard. Do you attend movies indiscriminately? No person should be so indolent as to completely condemn all movies regardless of the circumstances, but that is not the point. Too many prefer to their steady, but the movies every Friday night, simply because that is the time they can go. Even if the most sincere, vulgar, or licentious movies were showing, they would be there simply because it was Friday night. Such is the very epitome of inconsistency. But virtue of the fact that one professes to be a Christian, his life must condemn immoral. On the other hand, his re-creation, he delights in seeing just these things which his life must condemn."

"No, we are not condemning all movies—just attending indiscriminately..."

HALL-Young

To Wed Soon

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hall of Market- ing, Ohio, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Dorothy Ann, to Airman 1-C. Bernard D. Young, also of Market- ing. Miss Hall attended Harding the past two years and was a member of the MSA social club.

Airman Young recently re- moted to the Air Force.

This wedding will take place on Nov. 25, at the Church of Christ in Marion. The couple will live near Columbus, Ohio, where he is stationed.

SOMETHING FROM WHERE I STAND

BY ED WYNN

How often do you attend the movies? How much did you ever think about the wisdom of them? To give us a little something to think about in the beginning this week we quote an excerpt from the Arkansas Democrat. Published last summer by Kerr Shannon, a feature writer. Under the heading of "Bizarre Tactics of Movie," he writes the following: "In times past I have often discovered upon the peculiarities—natural—things actors do on the screen. This goes for both theatre and screen. Take, for instance, the manner of courting. The low-down-dives sing their sweet nothings to each other. Wotting by song is strictly movie stuff. I have never seen it happen in real life, or heard of it happening in real life. It's the movie-star's or real life not real life. And...

"Have you noticed the new mode of breathing? It is put on lavish display in the picture 'Traps.' The comedy and campaign of Gina Lollobrigida is the object of both Bugs Laramie and Tony Curtis. Then, she lies like covers off the oil. And here's something else—George Washington had two horses shot from under him in a single battle. It's nothing unusual for a horseman fighting a gun battle to get a horse shot from under him—except in the movies."

"In real life, it's the opposite. Guns are flashing all over the place. Riders topple from their steeds, but their steeds scramble off unscathed..."

"Since it is harder to suffer a horse to play dead than to teach a rider to play like his shot, we should overlook the spurious aspects of the movie short-hand. But cerebral kissing and wooing by song are inconceivable..."

Before I am labeled "radical" more than I already am, I heartily add: "He said it, not me." But, just as hardly anything we said with all his implications."

Here is the reason. If the wooing by song and the precocious love scenes of many movies were "out" there would be nothing left. Both are definitely off-springs of the "real" life and not "real" life. As far as the men always being shot off the horses, maybe Shannon forgets to realize that all movie actors—and criminals—are expert marksmen. This should also be taken into consideration."

"Maybe all the above is rather curious, but it does serve to introduce a problem that faces thinking persons today—especially those trying to follow a high moral standard. Do you attend movies indiscriminately? No person should be so indolent as to completely condemn all movies regardless of the circumstances, but that is not the point. Too many prefer to their steady, but the movies every Friday night, simply because that is the time they can go. Even if the most sincere, vulgar, or licentious movies were showing, they would be there simply because it was Friday night. Such is the very epitome of inconsistency. But virtue of the fact that one professes to be a Christian, his life must condemn immoral. On the other hand, his recreation, he delights in seeing just these things which his life must condemn."

"No, we are not condemning all movies—just attending indiscriminately..."

HALL-Young

To Wed Soon

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hall of Marketing, Ohio, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Dorothy Ann, to Airman 1-C. Bernard D. Young, also of Marketing. Miss Hall attended Harding the past two years and was a member of the MSA social club.

Airman Young recently re- moted to the Air Force.

This wedding will take place on Nov. 25, at the Church of Christ in Marion. The couple will live near Columbus, Ohio, where he is stationed.

SOMETHING FROM WHERE I STAND

BY ED WYNN

How often do you attend the movies? How much did you ever think about the wisdom of them? To give us a little something to think about in the beginning this week we quote an excerpt from the Arkansas Democrat. Published last summer by Kerr Shannon, a feature writer. Under the heading of "Bizarre Tactics of Movie," he writes the following: "In times past I have often discovered upon the peculiarities—natural—things actors do on the screen. This goes for both theatre and screen. Take, for instance, the manner of courting. The low-down-dives sing their sweet nothings to each other. Wotting by song is strictly movie stuff. I have never seen it happen in real life, or heard of it happening in real life. It's the movie-star's or real life not real life. And...

"Have you noticed the new mode of breathing? It is put on lavish display in the picture 'Traps.' The comedy and campaign of Gina Lollobrigida is the object of both Bugs Laramie and Tony Curtis. Then, she lies like covers off the oil. And here's something else—George Washington had two horses shot from under him in a single battle. It's nothing unusual for a horseman fighting a gun battle to get a horse shot from under him—except in the movies."

"In real life, it's the opposite. Guns are flashing all over the place. Riders topple from their steeds, but their steeds scramble off unscathed..."

"Since it is harder to suffer a horse to play dead than to teach a rider to play like his shot, we should overlook the spurious aspects of the movie short-hand. But cerebral kissing and wooing by song are inconceivable..."

Before I am labeled "radical" more than I already am, I heartily add: "He said it, not me." But, just as hardly anything we said with all his implications."

Here is the reason. If the wooing by song and the precocious love scenes of many movies were "out" there would be nothing left. Both are definitely off-springs of the "real" life and not "real" life. As far as the men always being shot off the horses, maybe Shannon forgets to realize that all movie actors—and criminals—are expert marksmen. This should also be taken into consideration."

"Maybe all the above is rather curious, but it does serve to introduce a problem that faces thinking persons today—especially those trying to follow a high moral standard. Do you attend movies indiscriminately? No person should be so indolent as to completely condemn all movies regardless of the circumstances, but that is not the point. Too many prefer to their steady, but the movies every Friday night, simply because that is the time they can go. Even if the most sincere, vulgar, or licentious movies were showing, they would be there simply because it was Friday night. Such is the very epitome of inconsistency. But virtue of the fact that one professes to be a Christian, his life must condemn immoral. On the other hand, his recreation, he delights in seeing just these things which his life must condemn."

"No, we are not condemning all movies—just attending indiscriminately..."

HALL-Young

To Wed Soon

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hall of Marketing, Ohio, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Dorothy Ann, to Airman 1-C. Bernard D. Young, also of Marketing. Miss Hall attended Harding the past two years and was a member of the MSA social club.

Airman Young recently re- moted to the Air Force.

This wedding will take place on Nov. 25, at the Church of Christ in Marion. The couple will live near Columbus, Ohio, where he is stationed.
The football players, but when you mix is little more than a freshman er, and in all probability will ride again in this new and higher class.

The

players who carry the laurels to . the spread outward until you have gers the Vanderpool of Tennessee and here the sharp-shooter, seeming to have covered the whole. In football, all season when over Jim Shurbet, of Arkansas.

stronger than his poundage would ably the better passer, but even small frame of 128 pounds.

"Welcome"

TALKING

GUILFORD

Main & Park Ave.

Phone 923

Curtis Walker Men's Store

November 7, 1956 HARDING BISON, Searcy, Ark. 5

Tennessee Stops
Oklahoma, 18-7

By Ray Morris

The Tennessee Vols defeated Oklahoma in the same fashion they did Arkansas the previous week—7-6 in the last four minutes of the game.

With Oklahoma in the lead the two universities got fired up, and Harold Vanderpool and Gar-Jay pivots be-end great blocking from the 38 and 41 yard lines to give Tennessee an 18-7 victory.

The first half was mainly a battle of defenses with both teams forward walls playing well. Tennessee spent deep in Oklahoma's territory,

but they were deflected each time from the covered goal line until they took to the Airways.

With the ball on Oklahoma's 45 yard line Vanderpool faked back and hit Jim Borden on the 28 who snapped the remaining yards untouched for a six pointer.

Oklahoma threatened only once during the first half. Bob Fletcher put the ball deep in Tennessee territory with a 75 yard punt before Dick Smith brought him down on the 12 yard line. Tennessee defense tightened up and left the Sooners still trying to chuck up a score when the half ended.

Then the fourth quarter produced the thrill of the game. John Vanderpool started the fireworks with a 72 yard run on a reverse to tie the score, 6-6. Fletcher then put the Sooners in the lead with a run around left end and for the extra point

The Tennessee offense was sweat

in soft-but-sturdy

Zephyr Wool

GUARANTEED

WASHABLES

Put Kewdale through WOLFTREK, the genuine,
finest cold water washable. By the way, I made up
from your rich range of colors. Sizes 36 to 46

Drink

Coca-Cola

$7.95

WELCOME TO Bradley's
Barber Shop

103 W. Market

We appreciate your patronage!

MODERN SHOE STORE

(Across from Van-Aikins)

Excellent Shoe Repair Service
Brands you know, Shoes you love.

“Coca-Cola does something for you, doesn’t it?”

Texas, on a mud-splattered field, battled Arkansas a 3-7-0 deficit left Saturday night. Arkansas won the toss and elected to receive, but after three plays was forced in to punt to Texas. Texas then unmasked its earnest attack.

With sticky-fingered Mavis Baldwin switching passes, the red run option was by quarterback Bob Christian, and the dangling running of Charles Weeks, the longhorns were able to penetrate the hogs' "pigeons" consistently.

Weeks proved to be the man of the night scoring three touchdowns.

The first one came by way of a pass interception for thirty-five yards, the second by returning a kickoff all the way and the final by a fifteen yard sweep. Baldwin scored the other two touchdowns on pass plays and Christian added each of the extra points.

Arkansas now came in the third period. The touchdown play was set up by a good pass from Garrett Timmerman to Ray Morris, down to the Texas 11 yard line. Then from a spread formation Timmerman to Jim Shurbet with a short pass to the end zone for the six pointer. Timmerman made the extra point around out.

This conquest leaves Texas with a 3-2 record and if they beat Tennessee this afternoon there will be a stockpile.

Pelicans Victorious Over Grads, 15-10

Last week's softball was limited to only one official game. Twice the Rebels and Crackers started games, only to be ruined on both times. The one game which was not ruined was between the Pelicans and the Grads.

The Pelicans defeated the Grads who are set to see their first win this season in the first inning of the game. The Pelicans' Raymond Hardy and Jim Blackmon drove bases on walks. With one man out, Dick Johnson then hit a long drive into deep right field which was good for three bases and two runs to open the ballgame.

When the Graduates came to bat in the bottom half of the first inning, they scored the score at 2-1 on Edwards' home run with one man aboard.

The Pelicans came back in the second frame to score four runs on Hardy's sacrifice fly and Dick Johnson's homer with two men on base. They scored three more runs in the third, two in the fourth, one in the sixth, and three in the seventh for a total of fifteen runs in the game.

The Grads picked up a pair of runs in the third inning on singles by Claude Delaney, Clyde Huriman, and Carroll Beaden. Their big rally, however, came in the fourth frame when they gathered six runs on three singles and a double, but this wasn't enough to overcome the Pelicans who won the game by a final score of 15-10.

Dick Johnson led the Pelican hitting attack with a double, triple, and a homer, while Rades and Denley collected two hits each for the Grads.

The softball race is tightening considerably with only a few games to be played.

---

Wildcats Drop Number 2

The Harding Academy Wildcats found going rough last Thursday night at Wildcat field when the Des Arc team ground out a 35-13 victory.