Nineteen Seniors and Two Juniors Make Up Harding's Who's Who List

Nineteen seniors and two juniors at Harding are listed in "Who's Who Among Student in American Universities and Colleges," a national publication listing prominent university and college students.

Final selection of these students was made by the faculty after a list of outstanding students according to achievements in scholarship, leadership, citizenship and extra-curricular activities was submitted by the Student Association.

Seniors included on the list were: Ann Bobo, psychology major, Indianapolis, Ind.; Roger Brown, elementary education major, Estancia, N. M., Theta Alpha Gamma; Ben Curtis, mathematics and Biblical languages major, Compton, Calif.; Gerald Ebker, mathematics major, Owensville, Mo., Lambda Sigma; Jerry Figgins, chemistry major, Caruthersville, Mo., Alpha Phi Kappa; and Edwin Hightower, political science and mathematics major, Weslaco, Tex., Sub T-16.

Jerry Jones, Bible major, Maryland Heights, Mo., Sub T-16; John (Mike) Maple, political and social science major, Kingman, Kan., Lambda Sigma; Lynn Merrick, chemistry major, Little Rock, Ark., Beta Tau Gamma; and Joe Olree, accounting and business major, Hayti, Mo., Alpha Phi Kappa.

Bennie Porter, journalism and political science major, Colcord, Okla., Lambda Sigma; Mary Redwine, music major, Cordell, Okla., Ju Go Ju; Roberta Rhodes, elementary education major, Wichita, Kan., Ju Go Ju; and Ferra Sue Sparks, accounting major, New Albany, Miss., Tri Kappa.

Knox Summitt, mathematics major, Searcy, Ark., Tri Sigma Delta; Patricia Sutherland, home economics major, Searcy, Ark., Ju Go Ju; Sue Vinther, English and political science major, Dallas, Tex., Theta Psi; and John (Mike) White, chemistry major, Danville, Ill., Alpha Phi Kappa.

The two Juniors included in the group were: Myra Dasher, chemistry major, Valdosta, Ga., Beta Tau Gamma; and Bob H. Jones, chemistry major, Hutchinson, Kan., Sub T-16.

These students will appear in the "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" edition which will be published next summer. In addition to this permanent national recognition, each student receives a certificate of recognition awarded by the organization, benefit of the Student Placement Service provided by the organization, and can wear the Key emblem signifying membership in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

Ark. Chemical Society Meets Here Friday Night

Harding will be host to the monthly meeting of the Central Arkansas Section of American Chemical Society, Nov. 20.

Feature of the meeting will be an address by Dr. Robert T. Clark on "Adventures in Space Medicine." Dr. Clark is chief of the Department of Space Medicine at Aerospace Medical Center, Brooks Air Force Base, Tex.

Following dinner at Robertson's Rendezvous Cafe, the group will be entertained by the capella chorus.

The American Chemical Society is a national organization of chemists with a membership of 65,000. The central Arkansas society meets once every month and for the last five or six years at least one of those meetings has been held at Harding each year.

A Cappella To Begin Western Tour Nov. 27

Friday, Nov. 27, 42 members of the a cappella chorus will leave the Harding campus on a ten-day tour of Oklahoma, Colorado, New Mexico and Texas.

Highlighting this year's tour will be a program presented by the chorus in Phipps Auditorium at Denver, Colo., Nov. 29. At this time George Lynn, contemporary American composer and conductor will lead the group in "Sacred Symphony," which he composed especially for the Harding a cappella chorus.

Friday night the chorus will perform for the church of Christ in Cordell, Okla. Saturday will find them in Colorado Springs, Colo., where they will sing at the Central Church of Christ.

After their performance in Denver, the group will travel to Pueblo, Colo., where they will sing at the Broadway and Orman Church of Christ Monday night. Dec. 1 the group will sing in Albuquerque, N. M., at the Netherwood Park Church.

Traveling through Texas, the group will appear in Lubbock at the Broadway Church Wed., Dec. 2. Dec. 3 a performance is scheduled for chapel at Lubbock Christian College. The group will then go to Wichita Falls, Denton, Fort Worth, and Dallas. The last performance is scheduled at the Cedar Crest church in Dallas Dec. 6.

Because of limited bus space, only about two-thirds of the chorus members may go on the trip. Selection is made on the basis of section needs, singing ability and grades.

Those making the tour are: Dot Anderson, Jerry Atkinson, Marilyn Bailey, Ann Bixler, Mary Elizabeth Bolen, Carol Bowman, Jerry Burks, Margie Clark, Howard Claude, Lois Cobb, Midred Davis, Grover Goynes, Carolyn Hall, Charlene Harris, Linda Hartman, Sarah Hinds and Jim Howard.

Bisons Play John Brown To Open Cage Season

The Harding Bisons open their 1959-60 collegiate basketball season with a home game on Thursday, November 26, against John Brown University.

The game will be played in Rhodes Memorial Field House at 4:00 p.m. during the annual lectureship.

Scientific Lectures Are Scheduled Fri. And Sat. By Harding Graduate

Dr. Robert T. Clark, Jr., Harding graduate, and eminent scientist, is returning to the campus this week to give scientific lectures.

Chief of the Space Medicine Division, U. S. Air Force Aerospace Medical Center at Brooks Air Force Base, he will speak to Harding students in chapel Friday and Saturday. He will also speak on "Adventures in Space Medicine" at the November meeting of Central Arkansas section of the American Chemical Society here Friday evening.

Before his recent advancement, Dr. Clark was chief of the Department of Physiology-Biophysics, Medical Sciences Division. Dr. Clark graduated from Harding College in 1939 with a B. S. degree in biology. Appointed a graduate assistantship in physiology, he completed his M. S. degree at the University of Tennessee. He obtained his Ph. D. in physiology and biochemistry from the University of Rochester in 1949. Before entering his work at the U. S. Air Force Medical School, he taught biology at Abilene Christian College.

In his work with the Air Force Dr. Clark was presented for his outstanding work for the period from May 16, 1958 to May 15, 1959, the Air Force Outstanding Award for Research in Space Medicine, the highest honor a

Players To Present 'King Lear' In Second Production Of Year; Cast Of 23 Chosen For Dec. 15 Tragedy

Lectures Begin Monday, Nov. 23; Cox To Open Talks

"Some Current Problems and Opportunities Facing the Church" is the theme for the 36th annual Harding lectureship which begins Monday, Nov. 23, and closes Thursday, Nov. 26.

Approximately 2,500 people are expected to attend the four day program, according to Conrad Hays, assistant to the chairman of the Bible department. Residence for out-of-town guests is being provided in the Harding dormitories.

Chapel services, classes, and lectures concerning problems of the church will be held each day. John D. Cox opens the series Monday night with a lecture on "Background and Definition of the Subject." Closing the series on Thursday night will be a speech by Marshall Keeble of Nashville, Tenn.

Ruel Lemmons, editor of Firm Foundation, will be honored at a dinner, Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. at the Mayfair Hotel.

Each of the lectureship address will be published in booklet form by Firm Foundation. These booklets may be obtained for $3 during the lectureship.

A Thanksgiving barbecue dinner at noon will be one of the highlights of this year's program. Mr. Hays said he is "hopeful that all students will invite their parents to attend the lectureship and enjoy this fellowship on Thanksgiving day."

civilian Air Force employee can earn. He also received an Incentive Award of $300 for performance as administrative physiologist. In September he flew to Buenos Aires as one of two representatives of the United States to confer with two Russian scientists on problems of space medicine.

$300 for performance as administrator. Dr. Clark takes an active interest in his home town, New Braunfels, Texas. He is one of the leaders of the church, and he speaks frequently before civic, educational, church and youth groups.

A cast of 23 has been chosen for "King Lear," the tragedy to be presented by the Campus Players Dec. 15.

One of Shakespeare's greatest tragedies, the play will be the second Lyceum program presented by the Campus Players this year under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. R. Glen Wiley, assistant professors of speech.

The title role of Lear has not yet been announced. The roles of the King of France, Duke of Burgandy, Duke of Alencon, and Duke of Cornwall will be played by Cliff Boatright, Bob Crosby, David May, and Bill Farris, respectively. Bill Grady will portray the Earl of Kent and Gary Smith will be seen as the Earl of Gloucester. Edgar, Edmund, and Cusan will be by Ray Bailey, Ron Carter, and Jim Grady.

Others appearing in the play are Bob Bullard as the old man; Edmond Leigh, the doctor; Bill Epperson, the fool; Travis Jenkins, Oswald; James Calvert, captain; Pat Ralston, herald; Mike Eldridge, a gentleman; Norman Hale, Jerry Hunter, and Rodney Rickard, servants; Tom Gaines, knight; Margaret Beauchamp, Goneril; Anita Brunette, Regan; and Pat Forsee, Cordelia.

Commenting on the play, Mr. Wiley said, "This is the most daring undertaking for my wife and me since we've been here; it is a most difficult production because of its depth of emotion."

Gearhart To Interview Accounting Students

L. R. Gearhart, Resident-Partner of Ernst & Ernst, Memphis, Tenn., will be here Wednesday, Nov. 25, to interview prospective accountants. Those wishing an appointment with Mr. Gearhart should come by the Placement Office.

Mr. Gearhart will address the Accounting Club at 7:00, Tuesday, Nov. 24, in the American Studies Auditorium. Anyone wishing to attend this meeting is invited to do so.

Opinion Poll Reflects Student Attitudes

by Grace Davis

"Student opinion favorable" was the conclusion of Professor Bill Verkler's general sociology class. The basis of the statement was a student attitude poll, an assignment of the introductory sociology course.

The class interviewed one-tenth of the student body for a total of 43 men and 57 women. Among those interviewed, 27 had transferred from other colleges. The reactions, favorable, qualified, or unfavorable; were recorded on the questionnaire. Qualified was used when the student was dubious as to answering favorable or unfavorable. In all cases the per cent did not equal 100 because of unanswered questions.

To the question, "What is your general attitude toward Harding?" 88% were favorable, 12% were qualified, and none were unfavorable. This is a definite improvement over last year, said Verkler.

Seventy-eight per cent of the students said they would like for their children to attend Harding, 13% were qualified, and 4% would not favor it. Thirty-nine per cent planned to become active members of the alumni association, 12% were qualified, and 24% said they did not plan to do so.

Students asked whether they felt free to voice opposition to administration policies, 58% said they did, 26% said they did not and 15% were qualified.

The student council got a vote of confidence; 65% said they felt the student council was an effective organization, 19% were qualified, and only 4% said they did not feel it was effective.

A continuing question is the question of integration at Harding. The question "Are you in favor of allowing Negro students to attend Harding?" received 56% yes, 15% qualified, and 29% no. On a more personal level, "Would you be in favor of allowing Negroes in your social club?" 40% were in favor of it, 15% qualified, and 42% said no.

A traditional college complaint — food — did not show up to be a major Harding complaint. Forty-seven per cent were favorably impressed with the food, 32% qualified their answers, and 14% were not favorably impressed. The most suggested change in the food was "a greater variety." Both these questions were affected by the number of married students who were not concerned with the question.

"Do you favor the 'no dating in cars' rule?" Twenty-nine per cent of the student body did favor it, 16% qualified, and 52% did not favor the rule. The per cent was affected by a number of married students who favored the rule since it did not apply to them.

The Bible class requirement, 70% favored it, 19% qualified, and 7% were against it. Compulsory church attendance was favored by 44% and opposed by 40%. Seven per cent were qualified.

Quiet hour for girls on Sunday — 48% favored it, 11% were qualified, and 31% were against it. It was also noted that many boys favored the rule since it didn't affect them in any way.

The last question: "What do you feel is the major advantage of attending Harding?" was most often answered, "Christian environment and teaching."

The improved student opinion has been noticed by many before the poll. It is verified by a scientific study that none of the students interviewed had a generally unfavorable opinion of Harding.

Who's Gotta' Win?

The favorite theme of many yells in the repertoire of each high school and college this fall is "we gotta win." The implication is that if "we" don't win, the world will somehow be enveloped in flames at the final game-ending gun. If that doesn't happen, then certainly small flames will spring up next morning in all the grocery stores, hardware stores, dime stores, drug stores and filling stations. It's doubtful that the sun will rise, and if it does, it will be out of orbit.

Actually, we don't "gotta win." If we don't school and life will go on much as before. The sun will rise in its usual orbit the next morning, and while there will be regrets, there will be no cataclysm. Much more important is that in this crucial game, the teams shall be well coached, that the boys shall play with spirit and determination, that they shall play according to the rules of the game, that they shall strive to win. These things "we gotta" do. If after all this "we" have a better score than the opponents, well, that's just a very desirable and much appreciated bonus.

Perhaps this "we gotta win" business is just an exaggeration to spur a bunch of boys on to greater effort. Maybe we merely ought to recognize it as such. If it means that we must try to win under the letter and spirit of the code that governs the game, we'll buy that. If it means that winning is all there is to the game, then somebody is on the wrong track.

Lamberson, Organ, Christensen Win In SA Elections

Kirsten Christensen, Edna Lamberson and Virginia Organ are May queen finalists chosen Tuesday, Nov. 17, in a student election following presentation of candidates in assembly.

Later the student body will make final selection of the Queen of the May Fete and she will be presented in May Day ceremonies next spring.

Kirsten Christensen, junior home economics major from Hitchcock, S. Dak., represented Kappa Phi social club. Last year she was sophomore women's representative on the Student Council and president of Kappa Phi.

Kappa Kappa Kappa's nominee, Edna Lamberson, is a junior physical education and political science major from Hammond, Ind. She is a member of SNEA and the Bison staff.

Virginia Organ, who represented Omega Phi social club, is a senior elementary education major from Shreveport, La. She is a member of a cappella chorus and women's ensemble.

Students Select Finalists For PJ Queen In Chapel

Finalists in the recent student body election for queen of the Petit Jean are Margie Clark, Juanita Lawrence and Carole Thomas.

The queen will be chosen from these three in a later student body election and will be announced with the publication of the yearbook.

Margie Clark is a junior elementary major from Hope, Ark. Chosen to represent Mohican men's social club in the competition, she is a member of Kappa Kappa social club, circulation manager of the Bison and secretary of the band.

A senior speech major from Belle Plaine, Kan., Juanita Lawrence represented Tri Sigma social club. She is a member of Omega Phi women's social club, Campus Players and SNEA.

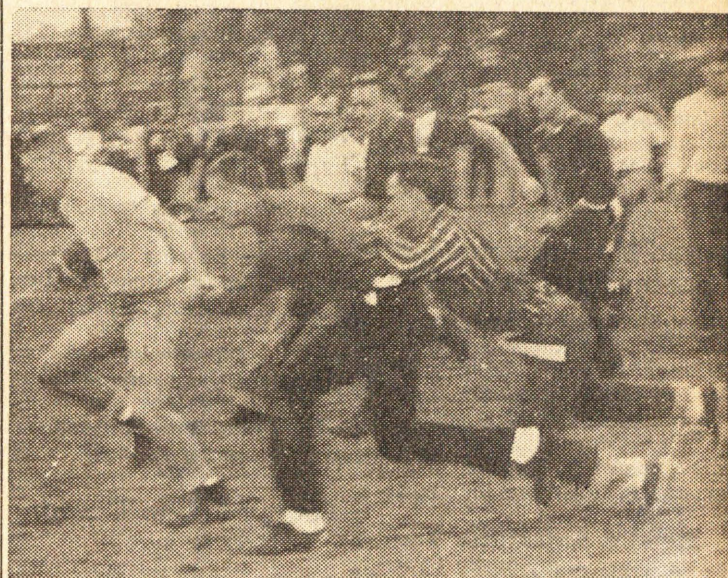

Carole Thomas is a senior home economics major from Corning, Ark., who was chosen queen candidate by Alpha Epsilon Chi men's social club. Last year she was May Queen, junior class favorite and a member of Kappa Phi social club.

Cleaning Job

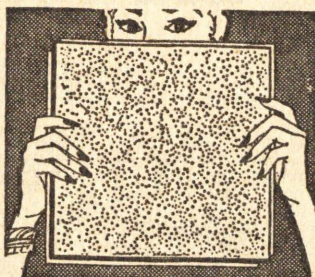

Students find the task of cleaning mortar from old bricks a pleasant one as both men and women join in the effort. Approximately 60 students volunteered their services in an effort to clear a newly purchased area for a parking lot across the street from the College Laundry. The used bricks are to be sold to provide further funds for the new Bible building.

A Big Effort

With intent eyes on their prey, a pack of Sub Ts give chase to an Alpha Phi Kappa ball carrier. Though the Sub T-16 crew provided close competition, Alpha Phi Kappa emerged victor with a 12-0 score.

Roach Weds McCoy

Miss Nelda Roach and John McCoy were married Sunday, November 15, at 2 p.m. in the Downtown church of Christ. Dr. Joe Spaulding performed the ceremony and Dr. George Bond gave the bride away. Miss Jo Meadows was maid of honor and Mr. A. R. McCoy, father of the groom, was best man.

Sophs Trip Over Stars While Walking On Clouds; Take New Look At World

by Kathy Maddox

I walked into the room. There was something — well, let's say "different" about it. Then it hit me. "Hey, who turned the world up side down?" I stood there on the sky looking up into the ground. "Oh, is that what the tops of trees look like?"

Sidewalks wound their way around the garden with lamp posts along Atkinson Avenue extending down from the ground. Oops, musn't step on any stars — bad luck, you know. Under the circumstances, however, I didn't feel like I was walking on clouds — I was walking on them!

Making my way about the sky, I took a look at the inhabitants. A strange taste they had, I must say. They were wearing all their clothes inside out — now wait a minute, there's more — and backwards! That's right! Everywhere I walked, even through they would burst out laughing, their pockets and shoulder pads shaking. A gay crowd it was. By now I had decided it was those sophomores I had been expecting at the Legion Hut on Nov. 5.

"Well, good-bye there! Nice seeing you here." After everyone said their good-bye's, they had refreshments and set out for entertainment, which included backwards relay races. I then sat back and enjoyed a delightful evening while "The Fatal Quest" was performed by six sophomore girls. Claudette Faulk was the princess; Carolyn Hall, the king; Ann Bixler, the queen; Lois Cobb, the duke; and Linda Seastrunk and Georgie Claypool, the curtains. This was followed by a male quartet of Jerry Atkinson, Jerry Burks, Jim Howard and Carl Cheatham. Swoon! Butch McLarey played the guitar and Mary Elizabeth Bolen, the piano. Just before the party broke up, I walked around the walls (no, I'm not shy) to go window shopping. These sophomores are really industrious people. They even brought along their own stores — Nicholson's butcher shop, Gaither's grocery, Pete's barber shop, and, oh, who's shop is that over there?

Finally, though, unable to turn time backwards, the sophomores turned the world right side up, said hello, and went home. Oh, who am I you say? I was the Spirit of the party.

Beta Tau Gamma Plans Third Function

At the regular meeting of Beta Tau Gamma, Monday, Nov. 9, Irma Haney was chosen as the Inter-Club Council representative. Committees were then assigned for the third function to be held Dec. 11 at the Legion Hut.

The club project for the year is to support a student at Ibaraki Christian College in addition to helping the Inter-Club Council Pay-for-a-Day here at Harding.

Club pins were ordered by the new girls, and Myra Dasher gave a talk on posture to close the meeting.

Representing Beta Tau as May Queen nominee will be Fay Conley.

sored by Mrs. Perry Mason and Herb Dean.

Omega Phi Entertain Three Former Members

The regular meeting of Omega Phi was held Monday, Nov. 9, with Becky Barganier and Ann Allison serving as hostesses. A date was chosen for the club banquet and a report concerning the recent Interclub Council meeting was given. Pictures of formal initiation and "open house" were passed around and plans made to have a third function in the near future.

Saturday, Nov. 7, Omega Phi welcomed three former members, Betty Baker Coile, Betty Clark and Pat Gay back on campus with an informal supper get-together in the Empire Room. Betty Clark and Pat Gay are at present employed in Memphis, and Betty Coile resides in Wewoka, Okla., with her husband.

Films On Germany; Italy Shown To European Club

Nov. 3 the European Club met to see films on Italy and the Ruhr Valley of Germany. Films on other European countries will be shown later in the year. The club also discussed further plans for their activities during lectureship week.

The European Club meets semi-monthly in apartment D in Sewell Hall. The next meeting will be December 1 at 8:45. Visitors are always welcome.

Intramural Activities Encourage Theta Psis To Order Sweat Shirts

It was decided at the last regular meeting of the Theta Psis to obtain sweat shirts which will be used during intramural activities.

The main topic for discussion was the third function, and food and recreation committees were chosen. The date will be chosen later.

Nine New Members For Sigma Tau Sigma

The Sigma Tau Sigma social club has chosen Mary Redwine, a senior from Cordell, Okla., as their club queen. Since being chosen, Mary has kept the members well supplied with cakes, cookies, and other delights.

Nine new members installed after a rough pledge week are Odenn Parker, Gary Carson, Tom Gaines, Kenny Howell, Orville Brown, Mike Richardson, Marvin Rickett, Donnie Shafer, and Jerry Allison.

Oege Beau Entertains Members With Party

Wayne Gaither, Oege's club beau, could possibly have started another tradition at Harding. Monday night, Nov. 2, Wayne gave the members of the club a party and served ice cream and a cake decorated with the Oege emblem.

Applauded into a speech, Mr. Gaither thanked the members for his election as their beau. This received the response of "Let us call you sweetheart" by the Oeges.

Hobo Party On Tap As Pioneer Function

Fifteen new members were welcomed into Pioneers at Camp Wlydewood following pledge week. They are: Harold Becker, Don Blair, Ben Booker, Tommy Clark, Ray Dearin, Gary Elliott, Jim Evans, Al Ferrill, Tom Finley, Bill Pruitt, James Ruble, Larry Scroggs, Lester Risner, Harry Westerholm, and Johnny Westerholm.

Plans were completed for the club "hobo party" to be held at Bee Rock, Saturday, Nov. 21. Plans are also in the making for the banquet.

Behind the errorless pitching of Ben Camp, the club bounced back from the defeat by the Koinonias to win the American League softball tournament by trouncing the Koinonia Club in the second game. The Pioneers continued their winning ways by defeating the Galaxy club in rag tag football.

Colhecon To Present Style Program Tonight

Mr. Selwyn Loeb, of Gus Blass Co. in Little Rock, will present a program on style and coordination in dress tonight at 7:30 in the main auditorium.

All Harding women, both students and faculty wives, are invited to attend this program sponsored by the Colhecon Club.

Mr. Loeb, divisional merchandise manager in charge of sportswear and accessories at Blass, will present a program, complete with models and costumes, on style and color coordination in dress, the possibilities of accessories and economical selection of fashions.

Mr. Loeb did under-graduate and graduate work in business and retailing at the University of Pittsburgh. He has worked as assistant buyer and merchandiser; he is now assistant to the president of Blass company.

Tri-Kappas To Have December Banquet

The Kappa Kappa Kappa social club held its regular business meeting Monday night, Nov. 9. The main item of business was the banquet, and December 11 was chosen as the date and the Roberson's Rendezvous Restaurant as the place. Committee heads appointed were: food, Ferra Sue Sparks; invitations, Kathy Maddox; entertainment, Jan Morton; and decorations, Margie Clark. It was decided to postpone the third function until next semester. Plans were made to make a new key to go in the Student Center and Edna Lamberson was put in charge of arrangements.

TAG's Gain Full Status Rated As Largest Club

The Theta Alpha Gamma social club recently gained full status among the Harding social clubs. Better known on the campus as TAG, Theta Alpha Gamma is made up of 30 married couples, giving it the largest membership of any club on campus.

With its membership including both men and women, a number of which are not students, TAG is unique among the social clubs. Its new status will permit it to furnish a nominee for both the Petit Jean Queen and May Fete Queen in the future. They will also have a representative on the women's interclub council.

Charles Boddy is president of the club and Harold Bowie is the faculty sponsor.

Fraters Choose Hobby To Fill Veep Position

At the last meeting of the Fraters, David Hobby was elected vice-president. This was the first meeting of the Fraters with their new members who are: Tom Brister, Stan Combs, C. L. Students Learn Fencing Skills From Professor

By Virginia Leatherwood

Would you like to develop your coordination and learn to be more graceful? Why not join the fencing club? Billy D. Verkler, sociology professor, organized this club three years ago and at the present time it has ten members.

When Mr. Verkler was attending Arkansas State College, he became acquainted with the art of fencing through one of his colleagues, Miller Williams, who had organized fencing clubs in Hendrix, Ark., and at Arkansas State Teachers College. Williams' brother was the state champion fencer when intercollegiate fencing was held in Arkansas. Williams taught Mr. Verkler who now is teaching those interested in the sport.

Fencing, Verkler explained, is a sport which developed out of the early duels during the Middle Ages. Three types of swords were used: the dueling sword epee, the saber, and the foil, which is the most common. Club members use the foil. Some of the basic movements the beginner learns are the on guard, advance, leap, thrust and lunge. At the present time, members who have learned these techniques are fencing each other. After they become more advanced, they will participate in intercollegiate matches.

Fencing is one of the fastest sports and tends to develop skill, coordination and grace in the individual. Good requirements for fencing are: a sense of balance, coordination, sharp reflexes, and a sharp eye. However, Mr. Verkler added, these qualities, if lacking in the individual, can be developed by fencing.

Practice sessions are held three times each week: Tuesday at 6:30, Thursday at 4:00, and Friday at 4:00. Any of these sessions are open to interested persons; it is not necessary to be experienced in the art of fencing. Dues of $1 per semester, include cost for equipment used in the lessons. The fencing club is open to both men and women.

Tale of Two Cities!

Among Western Hemisphere cities with the largest per capita enjoyment of Coca-Cola are, interestingly enough, sunny New Orleans and chilly Montreal. When we say, "Thirst Knows No Season," we've said a cheerful mouthful.

So don't take any lame excuses about its not being hot enough for Coca-Cola. Forget the temperature and drink up!

Sports Talk

By JIM BROWN

Coach Hugh Groover's basketball team has dwindled down to 17 men in preparation for their first game with John Brown University on Thanksgiving.

The loss of top scorers Fred Massey and Huel Evans through graduation has left a big hole to fill. Much of the responsibility for scoring will be left to team captain Leon McQueen. McQueen, probably Harding's best all-around player, can shoot, rebound, and is a good defensive man. Leon played a great deal of last season with a bad leg and missed several games because of his injury.

Other players who are expected to see much action are:

Bennett Wood: A 6'3" forward who can rebound and is a good defensive man, but must prove he can hit under game pressure.

Jim City: City will start at one of the three forward positions. A hot and cold scorer, Jim is a good man on the boards and a top defensive man. City should have his best year.

Dwight Smith: Dwight is a tough little guard with speed to burn. Smith showed marked improvement last year over the previous year and should be even better this year.

Gerald Casey: Gerald played only part time last year but looked really good toward the end of the year. Casey could be this year's surprise player; he has all the tools.

Ken Nicholson: If Ken continues to improve at the rate he was at the close of last season, it's going to be hard to keep him out of the starting lineup. When asked if he thought he would be cut from the squad this year (jokingly), he replied, "He can't cut his starting guard can he?"

Alpha Phi Kappa Downs Sub T-16 On Late Scoring For 12-0 Victory

In club football this week the Alpha Phi Kappas remained undefeated by downing the Sub Ts by the score of 12-0. The A.P.K.s scored late in the third quarter on a pass to Ray Griffin to break a scoreless deadlock. Anderson scored the other touchdown for the winning team. Outstanding defensive play was displayed by Dave Meadows for Alpha Phi while Bob Mitchell did an excellent job for the Sub Ts. The Alpha Phis are assured of a spot in the championship game.

In other games of the week the Galaxy downed the T.A.G. in a hard fought game 19-12. Bud Gentry was the outstanding player of the game as he picked up most of the yardage for the Nicholson is only a sophomore, but this could be his year to shine.

Larry Brakefield: Brakefield is a freshman but plays like he has been around a long time. It is apparent that this tall slim boy from Louisiana has played some good basketball. He could be just what the team needs to make it a winner.

Others who probably will see a lot of action this year are freshmen Steve Smith, David Simpson, Billy Wheeler, David Smith, and Timmy Rhodes. Transfers Bob Tucker and Jim Redding also look good.

The Bisons' first home game is a week away, so let's all make plans to attend the game between our Harding Bisons and John Brown University on Thanksgiving.

winning Galaxies.

The Sigma Taus remained the only undefeated team in the American League by downing the previously undefeated Independents in a well-played game 12-0.

The Koinonias continue to prove themselves a club to be reckoned with in club sports by knocking off the Pioneers to the tune of 31-30. The passing of Herman McHan proved the difference as all but one of the Koinonia touchdowns came via the air route.

Wallace Takes Trophy In Cross-Country Run

Bob Wallace, senior, won the intramural cross country run with a time of nine minutes and 30 seconds.

This year's course was lengthened considerably over previous years. The race was run in extremely cold weather — across bridges, a railroad trestle, fields, and six fences. Wallace said of the cold, "Man, I lit out and nearly froze to death."

Bob said that Don Blair, who won the second place trophy, pushed him all the way. "He nearly caught me one time when I fell over a fence," said Bob. Ben Miller came in strong for a third place finish.

Everyone got a fast start, but Wallace took the lead right away and never was headed. Bob worked out for about two weeks prior to the race. This is the third consecutive year he has entered the cross country run, coming in fifth, third, and first respectively.

The 'Old Men'

By Ed Higginbotham

This article is a continuation of one started several weeks ago on some of our faculty members. Its purpose is to show why Harding's faculty wins consistently in intramural sports. Let's look at a few more of our faculty members:

Carl Allison — Coach Allison participated in high school football, basketball, baseball, and track at McAlester, Okla. He won all state honors in football and baseball and was an all-American high school fullback. At the University of Oklahoma, Coach Allison lettered four years in baseball and four years in football. In 1954 he played in the Orange Bowl football game in Florida.

While at Oklahoma, Coach Allison made the all big 7 team, all-Midwest, and Scholastic All-American. He also played in the famous East-West Bowl game in San Francisco. He was drafted by the Chicago Bears professional football team, but he chose to go directly into coaching. To say the least, Carl Allison is a credit to Harding College.

Bob Meyers — Mr. Meyers played high school softball, basketball, and football in Oklahoma. He was offered a football scholarship to A.C.C., but he declined it to study Bible at Freed Hardeman. Mr. Meyers was more outstanding in softball than any other sport. He has played on several really good softball teams. For instance, during his three years in the Army, his team didn't lose a game.

He played on the team which won the major league softball championship in Oklahoma City in 1949.

In St. Louis one night, Mr. Meyers struck out twenty men in one game. His team went on to win the St. Louis Metropolitan softball championship. Mr.

Volleyball Takes Over In Intramural Program; Two Leagues Formed

With the intramural football and softball seasons in the past for another year, volleyball has made its entrance. Due to the large number of participants, the teams have been divided into two leagues. The Forrest League is made up of the Oaks, Pines, Elms, Faculty No. 2, Cedars, Willows, Firs, Palms, Maples and Spruces. The Planet League consists of the Earth, Pluto, Faculty No. 1, Neptune, Uranus, Mercury, Venus, Saturn, Mars and Jupiter.

In this first week of play there were two rounds played. In the first round in the Forest League the Oaks won twice by defeating the Pines and the Willows, the Elms downed both the Faculty and the Palms while the Maples were winning over the Spruce and Firs. In other games of this league the Cedars, Pines, Palms and Spruces each won one.

Over in the Planet League the Faculty No. 1 defeated Neptune and Pluto, Uranus downed Mercury and Mars, while the representatives from Venus edged by both Saturn and Neptune. Earth, Mars, Mercury, and Saturn also got in the win column of the week by getting the nod in one contest each.

With one week of play on the books, all teams will be fielding men with experience under their belts, many for the first time. With this fact in mind we can expect to see several improved ballplayers in the remaining games.

Meyers seems to think his age is beginning to slow him down some, but intramural softball players still refer to him as "Rapid Robert" or "Bullet Bob."

John Lasater — Mr. Lasater played four years of high school football at Watertown, Tenn. This high school team was undefeated all four years. He played college football at Cumberland University.

Harold Bowie — Mr. Bowie participated in basketball, track, baseball, and football at Conway High School. He pitched and played second base in baseball, played guard in basketball, and was a halfback in football. Mr. Bowie played on district championship teams in football and basketball.

PEPPERDINE BOUND — Gerald Ebker, student association president, left Tuesday aboard American Airlines for Los Angeles and the annual Christian College Conference. About 75 student representatives from various Christian schools are expected at the session.

PRACTICE SESSION — Shirley Sisco warms up for her piano recital, which was presented Tuesday night before 150 persons. Her program included works by Bach, Mozart, Brahms and Liszt.

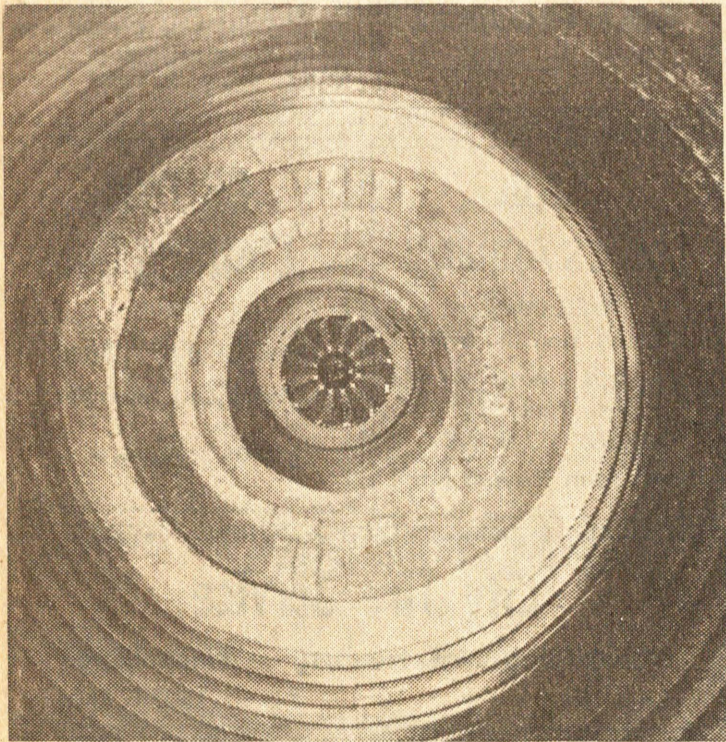

FINALLY — Bob Wallace, who has been in the "also rans" for the past several years, forged to the front in the recent cross-country race to take the first-place trophy. Presenting the award is Cecil Beck, director of intramural athletics.

COURT ACTION — Harding College's Bisons, right, turned from football to basketball last week with a scrimmage against Beebe Junior College. Thanksgiving day the Bisons open their schedule against John Brown University of Siloam Springs.

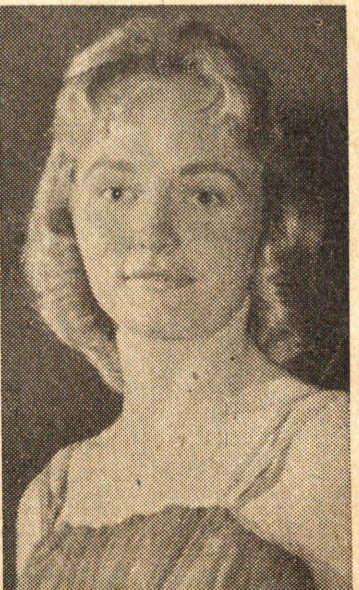

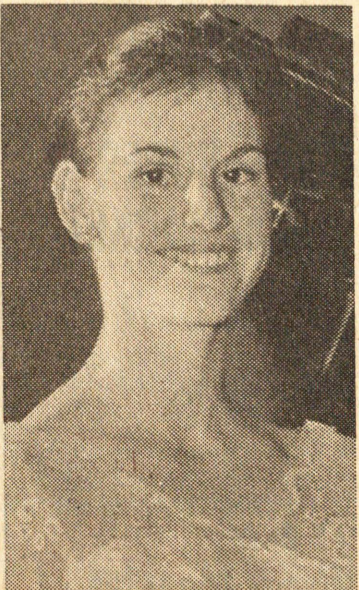

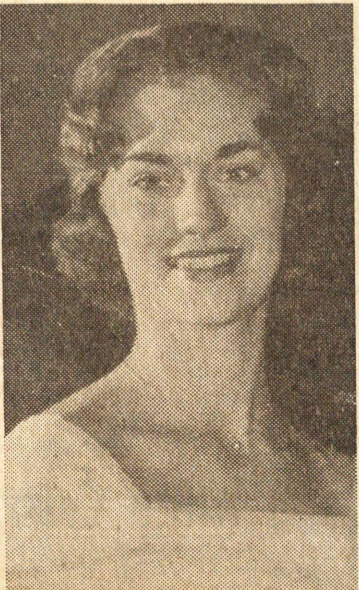

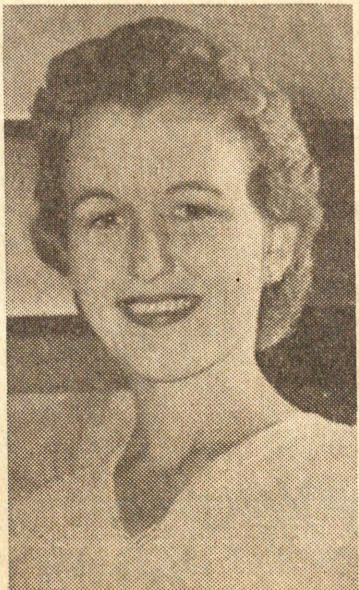

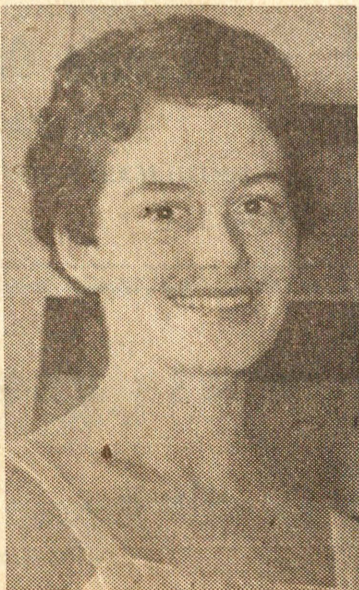

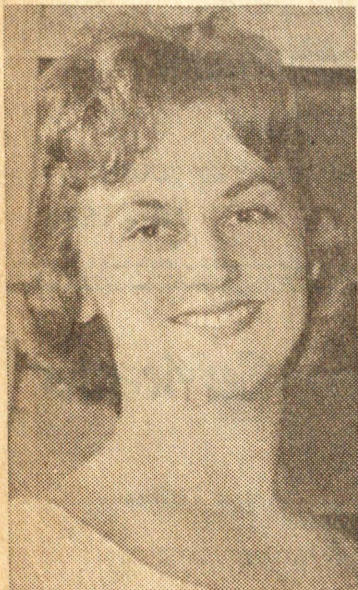

BIBLE BUILDING — Concrete walls of the new Bible Building basement, left, project from the ground as a result of recent construction activity. A concrete floor in part of the basement has been poured and foundations for other parts of the building are being prepared.

A WAZZIT? — Somewhere on the campus this object performs a vital function. The first student to mail the answer to Box 1101, wins a free $.10 root beer at the Student Center.

CHORUS TOUR — Professor Ken Davis directs the Harding College A Cappella Chorus in preparation for the annual fall tour. Traveling 2400 miles, the chorus will make appearances in New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma and Colorado. The 43-member group leaves Friday morning Nov. 27 for the first performance at Cordell, Okla.
