Dear John Allen,

I think we overlooked one place where you ate - the Mayers. (Mr. & Mrs. T. E. Mayer). You may have remembered it but thought I would just mention it.

We had a nice time last night. Enjoyed hearing Bro. Dixon. One man was baptized. I understood his wife had been baptized earlier in the meeting. The Gunters carried a load, the Mayers and Dett. Levis and her mother were there, too. We helped swell the crowd to their largest, during the meeting.

We're going to feel lost not going to preaching. Want you to know we thoroughly enjoyed every minute of your stay with us. The excellent preaching we won't forget soon. Hope we will be able to live it out in our lives.

Aunt Annie is none the worse if ~~Sam~~ all her activities. She was pretty tired last night when we got home but she's all right this morning. If she continues to feel as well as she does now, we may plan to go see Aunt Maggie, in Nashville.

Hope you made your trip home without any trouble and found Sue and Mary Beth well. Give them our love.

Sincerely,

Louise
