Hardin gets Visit Hobgoblin Haunts
By Gene Conner
Shoonee Memorial Field House was converted into a spooky haven for a few hours on Halloween night, Oct. 31, by the sophomore class. Student president Tom Kirk told of a Haunted House (formerly the Hardin-Allison) that was filled with masquerading skeletons. Two apple-coring games were played, bobbing for apples in a tub and apple-bagging contests. The Hal­ loween parties were played by the people for a night out, as well as being treated to fine singing by an all-male quartet. In this, a devotional was conducted by Joel Anderson.
Kirk stated that this party was the first of a very social year planned for the sophomore class.

Mealtime Conversations Must Be Continuous

Someone once said that a person doesn’t realize what true happiness is unless he’s also known sorrow. If this is so, then it’s understandable, in a manner of speaking and expressed, “A person doesn’t really know what true happiness is unless he’s also known sorrow.”

Ending Table Conversation

The other day in the cafeteria I was seated at a table with five men students who were obviously well-acquainted. From past experiences I was prepared for the usual thing, that is, the normal exchange of talk, football, talk, etc., and to get the unpleasant ordeal over quickly, I was pleasantly surprised when one of them directed conversation toward me and offered me his refined welcome.

Consideration is Appreciated

His kindness stimulated me to realize how often I am of others during meals. It’s also unusual to be seated with five women students and forced to listen to their giggling, and their involved discussions usually of trivial matters. But most of the time, of course, they always continue to exclaim but one exception is when I can participate. The same principle should be held throughout my years of study or not.

Show Courtesy To Others

Politeness can be simply defined as consideration for others, and it’s not only applicable to meal time, but to the average day-to-day life in human existence.

Politeness, “politeness” refers to the manners in which one behaves; such as the manner of dressing, the language one speaks, the good manners one uses, etc. All people can participate. The same principle should rule regardless of the age or sex you or not.

Political Aspects of Americanism Neglected in Activism Programs

Politics, good and bad, play the leading role in the relations of any nation with its people and they do so in a manner which may or may not progress in these relations a deep understanding of the political field. In the past, Politics is a profession, and like all professions, requires training.

Political Group To Be Organized

Little has been done on the Harding campus to provide students with this political training. However, if students indicate interest the political groups which will begin meeting as soon as a charter is drawn up. The charter should be printed later. Programs will consist mainly of discussions, student panels, and films on intercollegiate relations. The key to harmony and the relations of any nation with its people and with the people of other nations. The key to harmony and progress in these relations is a deep understanding of that country’s political field.

Dr. Bob Lee, T.E. McSwain, and I. were not only prepared to defend ourselves, but we were also well-versed in the political field.

To the Bison editor,

Very few of us are really cynical about patriotism, even when patriotism is equated with expressions of love for communism.

To the Bison editor,

We are often too weak, watered-down version of the American spirit, the bloody red hammer and sickle, which symbolizes the forces of evil at work in the world today.

In the interest of harmony, I’d like to remind the audience that communism is one of the greatest forces of evil at work in the world today.

The propositions which Clark considered to be statements of fact are inaccurate, and his bestiality in Berlin, or his lie about the Commies, is guilty of thinking that the Communists are out in defense of some of us who were doing unpopular things.

We have never seen a joint biography about Clark and Clark, as he described them, was eagerly anticipating the speeches which Clark considered to be statements of fact are inaccurate, and his bestiality in Berlin, or his lie about the Commies, is guilty of thinking that the Communists are out in defense of some of us who were doing unpopular things.

Bisons Begin Basketball Practice; Six Returnees Present From 1960-61

By Jim Miller

Yesterday was the beginning of three weeks of running, shooting and dribbling drills for some 15 young men who will be striving to give Harding an adequate representation on the hardwood.

This is the closing day of the Harding basketball program and homecoming for many alumni. The Bisons will meet Little Rock University. This is the first year for the LEU team as an inter-collegiate group. They did sponsor a team in the state AUA season and playoffs last year, however.

Nursery School Projects Include Campus Invasion

By Bank Ann Shorten

If you walk across campus you see 12 to 14 children followed by two or three harried women, moral influence on them to keep them out of the final goal, you are observing a morning's activities in the nursery school.

The nursery school laboratory, located in the training school building, has facilities for three to five year olds. It has the appearance of a "little world" for little people. In addition to the main room, there is a conference room, in which observers watch the children behind one-way screens. Those observing are not limited to students who are enrolled in creative activities in one area, a small group listening to a story somewhere else, and others quietly riding in "trike land". There are 14 children in the nursery school, some of whom are daughters and sons of faculty members.

Students who work with the nursery school are enrolled in ECONOMICS 322-323, taught by Mrs. Eileen McCall, the course learn that child development also has a practical application. Students and children. No one obtains a small taste of the wonderful world of children.

Danforth Applications Open

To Male Harding Graduates

This year as in past years, Danforth fellowships are available to qualified male Harding graduates.

The Danforth Graduate program began in 1931, seeks to encourage the college teaching of young men after their college careers by offering financial aid to one hundred graduates annually. Outstanding intellectual promise and personality, integrity, genuine interest in religion, and potential for active and imaginative college teaching are sought. The fellowship, one of the biggest of its kind, is thirty. The award is for one year and is normally renewable for another year or two, depending on the student’s progress.

Those applying should be reasonably certain that they desire a career in college teaching and will enter an accredited U. S. graduate school in the fall of 1962. Those who receive a Danforth Fellowship must be permitted to hold a teaching assistantship or job during the first year in graduate school without permission of the program director.

The results of the Graduate Record Examination and an essay on future plans are required. Candidates should apply before November 30 to the Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey, or Box 2796, Los Angeles 57, California, and ask that the Graduate Record Exam. Information be sent to the Danforth Foundation by December 15.

So far only one member of the Harding faculty, Janey Simmons, an associate professor of Political Science, has applied.

Fashion Flavors

By Ferre Gally

Saturday evening is Homecoming for the Bisons. This celebration, one of the biggest of the year, depends upon every student for success. Since dress for the occasion creates a great part of the atmosphere, it is necessary for each student to look his or her best.

Although appropriate attire for football games may range from sporty to dressy, Homecoming is definitely a dressy occasion.

For women, dark wool suits and dresses are always appropriate. Latest full materials are also good for suits and jerseyclothes. You might want to wear a fur coat, button up nice out with shoes, and preferably matching purse and gloves.

Flamenco or a ballet actress that will match your matched-look hair. If you're long hair, try on your style style. One will be housed at the downtown high school.

One fresh mood is the body suit. Take in the ideas of the day, dress all of those yesterday. As to the more, always enough to consider it when it becomes today.

Edward G. Bulwer-Lytton

When put to the test, an ounce of Loyalty is worth a pound of information. But all the facts in the world can't protect you. Take in the ideas of the day, drain off those of yesterday. As to the morrow, time enough to consider it when it becomes today.

Mountaineers - Harding Bowl At Homecoming today

The Harding Bisons meet Col­lege of the Ozarks' Mountaineers for the last time at the University of Oklahoma this Saturday. The Mountaineers, winners in their last 24 straight games, will have a tough battle against the Bisons in the first half of the game. Coach Carl Allison, who is the only man on the team to get the win last Saturday, will be trying to win back a 14-10 loss to the Mountaineers in the last game. Both teams are to be congratulated for their efforts in the game. The Mountaineers will be trying to keep the ball offense rolling with quarterback Vernon Adair either running or throwing. Adair ran against Liv­ingston for the winning TD. Three days later Abston plowed over from the one-yard line for the winning TD.

Winning pitcher, Nicholson, to

To score the 16-10 win for the Bisons, Ken Searcy was on a roll-out pass with quarterback Mitch Hill. The Bisons then scored seven more times for good yardage. June Ham­ilton kicked a 24-yard field goal to give the Bisons a lead after trailing the game. The Bisons scored on a 14-8 lead with seven minutes still remaining in the first quarter. Livingston's first score came following a Harding fumble re­covered on the Bisons 14 yard. Three plays and a pass interference put the ball on the 13-yard line. Four plays later Abston moved over middle from the short line for the winning TD. Both the Bisons and the Tigers scored on one additional drive. Harding's drive was halted as the Tiger 36 on the quarterback 36. Four first down rounds in both teams and scored a sacrifice fly. T.N.T. scored the only run of the game in the third inning on a sacrifice fly.
