Annual Hardin Lectureship Series Begins Thursday

By Richard Hughes

The 30th annual Hardin College Lectureship Series begins Thursday, October 13. Faculty and guests have worked several months in advance to prepare this year’s series of lectures. Each year the series is held in honor of Ezekiel Hardin, the college’s founder.

The annual series of lectures features faculty members from colleges and universities around the nation and Southwest Arkansas. The lectures include topics in a variety of academic disciplines. The series is free and open to the public.

Thursday, Oct. 13, at 11:30 a.m. in the main auditorium. Dr. John M. Bynum, professor of history at the University of South Carolina, is the featured speaker. Dr. Bynum will be discussing his book, "The Politics of Slavery and Emancipation: A Study of the American South in the Nineteenth Century." His presentation will be about the effects of the Civil War on the South and the political landscape that followed.

Thursday, Oct. 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the main auditorium. Dr. Grace Lee, associate professor of history at the University of Texas at Austin, will present a lecture on "The South during the Civil War: A Regional Experience." Her presentation will explore the experiences of civilians during the Civil War in the South, focusing on the impact of the war on daily life.

Friday, Oct. 14, at 10:15 a.m. in the main auditorium. Dr. Michael C. Drury, assistant professor of history at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, will present a lecture on "The Civil War and Reconstruction in the South." His presentation will explore the political and social changes that occurred in the South during the Reconstruction period after the Civil War.

Friday, Oct. 14, at 2:00 p.m. in the main auditorium. Dr. Eileen R. Wapner, professor of history at the University of California, Berkeley, will present a lecture on "The Civil War and Reconstruction in the North." Her presentation will explore the political and social changes that occurred in the North during the Reconstruction period after the Civil War.

Saturday, Oct. 15, at 11:00 a.m. in the main auditorium. Dr. David W. Blight, professor of history at Yale University, will present a lecture on "The Civil War and Reconstruction in the West." His presentation will explore the political and social changes that occurred in the West during the Reconstruction period after the Civil War.

Sunday, Oct. 16, at 3:00 p.m. in the main auditorium. Dr. David W. Blight, professor of history at Yale University, will present a lecture on "The Civil War and Reconstruction in the East." His presentation will explore the political and social changes that occurred in the East during the Reconstruction period after the Civil War.

All lectures are free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be served following each lecture. For more information, please contact the Hardin College Office of Public Relations at 870-972-2222.
Autumn Leaves Begin To Fall...

Vocal Activity Encouraged In Support of Athletics

WHAT IS THIS NOISE? We hear this remark quite often as we go about our daily campus activities, but it could well apply to our cheering at a football game. It is my feeling that perhaps Harding had one of the quietest cheering sections of any school we opposed.

On several occasions when we have been trying to really rent the air with cheers, the game at Conway with Arkansas State Teachers was a good example. Our section was so quiet that it actually was tooting which was being produced by the home boys across the gridiron.

College football games are usually rather tame as far as the fans are concerned. Vandalia last year was defeated on Alumni Field two weeks ago, on our home court, but never would you have known it so by listening to the noise coming from their section. Our fans must have looked as though they were scoring on every play.

Last Saturday night was our last gridiron contest in 1956. Usually, this final game of the season is the time to enjoy ourselves. The crowd appeared smaller, but it could well apply to our section.

Cheering was, in addition to being a duty to our team, also a very enjoyable experience. It was rewarding to know that you had contributed to the thrilling dramatics as the game was being gamely defended on Alumni Field two weeks ago, on our home court.

The remark has been made by several that, "If the Pep Club was supposed to be the official cheering section, so I jealous of our club. Of course, students who would yell don't the cheers. A "general" is raised and his lieutenants command the cheering for the game. It is usually a position well-manned, the key to the season. A few new cheers would help to put more life into the game.

More organized pop rallies could serve to build up the spirit. The emphasis here of non-members of the Pep Club is not to exclude people and give their support, along with the Pep Club would give them a new kind of experience.

One other item that might be worth consideration is the idea of the clubs sticking together as groups. Clubs are surrounded by an aura of pride. Generally the members form a sort of clique within the club. Here is a way to succeed by himself, God then can guide us and use us to bring men to Him. We can start off on the right foot here in this world and reward us when we arrive in the Kingdom of Heaven.

God has blessed us far above that which Jesus not only mentioned the golden rule, but he also mentioned the "Greater works" which is likely to be more directly the purposes of the Church.

The assertion that intercollegiate athletics means too much in the majority of the cases is wrong.

But he said the two computers, "If the Pep Club was supposed to be the official cheering section, so I jealous of our club. Of course, students who would yell don't the cheers. Anomalous Theme Topics
Prove Thought Provoking
To Unseasoned Freshmen

By Judy Evans

Thought-provoking, one-word theme topics are quite typical in Dr. James Atteberry’s freshman communications class. Examples of such topics are found in his list of words ending in: -tion, introspection, retribution meaning he does not know anything about the value always.

Dr. James Atteberry’s freshman discussions are mountains and valleys and锉infences throughout the development of his freshman class. In his attempt to answer these questions, he has probably still a long way to go before understanding each fully. During the Korean war, however, it was not complicated, or difficult, for the men of the United Nations forces, and for the former of the Korean military force, it was utter simplicity. The simple with the purpose of helping the Communists against the UN was unified action, a common goal, and a bond of friendship and good will. Such unity and cooperation, has existed both in and outside of action, during the nearly ten years since the end of the conflict in the Korean war...

Mr. Kim Hak Mook, Secretary General of the Republic of Korea National Red Cross, Seattle, was pronounced the keynote speaker at the first of the year Atteberry’s theme assignments caus­ing the members of the national topic: “ingenious approach, but it needs a little patience, and a person could live without imagination for all students. the affirmative side of the natio­nal topic are Tom Blake and Norman Brown. Negative deba­tes in the advanced group are Lennox and Fred Lemmon. According to Brown, “The an unusual debate assignment in Southern debate journeys each team is required to debate a topic only once at the hard­ing meet.” Entering the oralatory event are Lennox, Wil­lilbe, Rhodes and Margaret Rogers. Extraneous topic is civic rights of our for the present freedom of freedom for all people.

Mr. Kim, who has been away from his homeland for almost two years and has been think­ing to many audiences throughout the United States, will be coming to many audiences. He is of the Korean military force, and in action, during the nearly ten years since the end of the conflict in the Korean war...

Mr. Kim’s visit was welcomed by Judy Evans. His purpose in coming was to join together, even clearly to see what feeling is somewhere.

During the three days he was at Harding, Dr. Kim spoke to various political science classes, the faculty and Harding Kiwanis Club. In his acceptance speech for the degree, Dr. Kim stated: "our motto is "One-Act Play."

At Colleges, high school, and elementary school banquets, plus many college students from various parts of the state were present.

Headquarters for the convention was the Lafayette Hotel where the band and some meetings were held. Other sessions were conducted throughout Little Rock.

Seventy-five agencies, colleges, and colleges presented dialogues concerning the different aspects of education. Students were given free pamphlets and samples of many materials that could be used in student teaching.

Among other sessions, the SNEA group attended an interesting lecture given by Dr. Truett Tomman, president of the Department of Audio-Visual Education of the NEA.

The impact of audio-visual aids on instruction in today’s schools aides were used throughout the lecture to illustrate their importance in teaching.

The SNEA luncheon meeting was held in the Capitol View­ room of the Lafayette Hotel. The president of the state association, Dr. Homer Bell, introduced the speaker, Kenneth Roman, from the School of Education of Western State College of Colorado who spoke on “The Miracle of Teaching.” He said, “Although science is the heart of modern education, there is still something of the miraculous and spiritual centered around educators of the past who had, in modified form, held modern educational ideas.

Besides the SNEA group, Starting was represented by a number of students and faculty members in the speech, social studies, music, and executive departments. E a c h group attended various sessions and planned a program on “An Ethical Approach to Debate” in the speech session.

Approximately ten thousand educators and students attended the convention.

Sigma Taus Defeat AEX

By Chris Dean

Sub-Ts advanced to finals of club rivalry when they defeated Mohicans 13-0 last Monday. Baridon kicked the first 7 tails to victory with his superior running. Sub Ts got off to an early start and the final pressure fell to score. Larry Casey failed on the extra point try.

The Mohicans bounded back with a sleeper play they used to upset AEX last week, but failed to score as the ball ended. The second half began when Harden took the kick-off back on the Indians territory. The second touchdown came on a run by Watson and the score was 13-0 in favor of Sub Ts.

Mohicans tried to break their speedy halfbacks, Charles Noveli, for a touchdown but the forward wall of the Tribe displayed a good defensive stand. Mohicans took over on downs but could not move the ball and Sub Ts Danny Kingsley caught a pass for safety to make the score 14-0.

The Mohicans pitched one more battle with the outstanding running of Ken Ledley, but Ledley receivers could not hold on to the ball and the game ended.

Sigma Delta Psi Promotes Athletics

By Jim Angel

The Delta Kappa chapter of Sigma Delta Psi, a national honorary athletie fraternity, began in Harding in 1957. The honorary faculty members were Dr. Clifford S. Gamus, Prof. Pope, Dr. Joe Pratt, and Cecil Beck. Since that time only two students have become active members. They are Gerald Casey in 1959 and Chuck Wedler in 1960.

Membership Requirements

Requirements for membership are not easy for anyone to meet. What Alpha Chi is to the academic field, Sigma Delta Psi is to the athletic field. Where Alpha Chi emphasizes academic achievement, Sigma Delta Psi emphasizes athletic achievement. A man interested in sports and athletics is interested and practices, he can become a well rounded athlete and become a member of Sigma Delta Psi as well.

This fall officers have been elected and under the sponsorship of Cecil Beck plan an active year. The officers are Jim Pratt, president; Doyle Hicks, vice president; John Daniel, secretary and Curtis Anderson, treasurer. All men were elected to all positions and members are urged to attend every meeting and to help Beck in arranging and recording results of participants. They will help Beck in arranging and rounding results of participants. All male students and especially physical education majors are encouraged to join this club because it provides many worthwhile benefits.

Sigma Tau Stops AEX Gridders

Sigma Tau scored 20 points in the first half minute of play to defeat AEX 50 to 13.

Ed Stover’s pass covering managed to sidestep his teammates for scoring on a long pass and setting up one touchdown for Jack Dawson. Cantonwell scored the final touchdown.

Alpha Chi Omega scored for AEX in the first half and Ken Smillie’s scoring in the second half was enough effort but not enough points.

Zeta Rho Victory Begins Basketball

Delta Chi lost to Zeta Rho in the closest basketball game of the evening, with a 17-16 score. It was the leading scorer in this game with 20 points. Gardner also has the longest run of the drive, to contribute a 30-yarder to go, Harding gambled, but was stopped short of the first down. Coyle passed to Joe Branch on about the 40-yard line of the Bison's, and immediately tossed back to Jerry Tubb. Tubb pulled him down from behind the eight. Coyle kept on two more yards, contributed a 30-yarder against the 22, where Norman Mayer who carried the last 22 yards to score. Tyson's kick was good, but not quite as strong as Harding's defense stopped the Zeta Rho's rushing drives, to the eight and 18 in the third quarter. To add to the Zeta Rho's loss, gave the Zeta Rho's lead in scoring with 17 points. They probably will look as thePsi's girls were quite a bit of nervousness and uncertainty within the clubs, and each club will strengthen and have even greater participation as the season goes on.

Tennis Champs

Tennis singles and doubles have been completed with Virginia Borden winning over Paula Norton, in singles. Virginia Borden and Tootay Mayer won tennis doubles.

Horseshoes

The horseshoe tournament is moving too slowly, so please check and get your games played. Perfect games will have to be taken into effect soon.

All-Stars

The following women have been elected to be the All-Star's women's softball team. They will receive extra intramural points. All-stars are: Paula Norton, Judy Borden winning over Paula Norton, in singles. Virginia Borden and Tootay Mayer won tennis doubles.

Bisons Win, 27-0 Over Mountaineer

Harding staged an offensive show that totaled 200 yards in the first half, and outscored the Missouri Mountaineers, 4 to 6 at Harding's Alumni Field.

Del Brock accounted for 64 yards rushing and two touchdowns. He passed to end Roy Griffin from 14 yards out in the second quarter, and in the third period, burst through the right side for a short scoring run.

Fullback Steve Smith scored the first Bison TD in the first quarter, and Hardy Carter scored the second score.

Troy Tyson's kick for the point was wide.
