Dear Brother Chalk:

Your letter of November 23 to Brother Fruzia has been referred to me for answer. I am sorry for this delay in answering your very fine letter. We were happy to hear that you liked the calendar idea. As you requested, we are sending you a calendar under separate cover.

We were glad to hear that you had a lady who might be interested in coming to work for us. However, at the moment we do not have an opening, and it is difficult to say when there will be one that this lady might be able to fill. From what you say, I would guess that she would be a capable person.

In Christian love,

Howard Hulet
