Dear Bro. Chalk:

Members of the Church in this part of the Country are greatly disturbed over the possibility of a Catholic being elected President of the United States. The religious issue has become the major issue as it is not limited to our Church members.

The writer has been wondering what the situation is in that part of the country. Is the religious issue a live issue there? What is the general reaction to literature that is informative on the Catholic issue?

I would appreciate hearing from you, and any comments that you would care to make.

Sincerely,

G.V. Whitefield
