Mr. John Allen Chalk
Broad Street Church of Christ
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear Brother Chalk:

Thanks for your good letter, and I hope you will yet succeed in getting Brother Whitson to help the work at Freed-Hardeman College. We are in need of quite a bit of hardwood flooring, and I wish you would see if he would donate this to us. If so, we will send the amount needed to you by return mail.

Under date of August 4, I wrote C. B. Newman asking him to join the National Booster Club. I would appreciate it if you would follow up on this contact.

You will be glad to know the following from your town recently donated 319 shares of American Educational Life Insurance stock with a par value of $1,595 to Freed-Hardeman College. Their names are: Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Adams, Mr. Robert C. Armstrong, Edwina Cummins, Mr. and Mrs. Roger G. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mitchell, and C. B. Newman.

We appreciate your influence for good in Cookeville, Tennessee, and wish for you the best.

Mrs. Wallace joins me in the warmest regards to you and your family.

Fraternally yours,

G. K. Wallace
Assistant to the President
