Dear John Allen:

With this letter I express my sincere appreciation for your thoughtful and prompt reply to my request for assistance. I am sorry that an appointment at Broad Street is not possible at this time.

May I impose on your willingness to help and ask you to try to arrange another appointment with some church for the same service (morning of July 30). I expect to be in your area about that time as I am trying to arrange an appointment with the church in Celina for that evening service. If you could possibly arrange something in the vicinity for that time I would be much indebted to you.

I am to leave here on tour July 11, and would like to have all appointments assured by that time so please let me know what you can do by that time if you can do so. Otherwise, after that date, I may be reached at 4947 Amboy Rd.; Memphis 17.

Thanks again, John Allen. My persistence in the task I have undertaken is out of concern for Finnish souls. May God bless your efforts with much fruit for the Savior.

In His Love,

Eddie
