
John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

2-23-1961

From: E.M. Pinckley

E.M. Pinckley

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

Recommended Citation

Pinckley, E. (1961). From: E.M. Pinckley. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/803>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

Carthage, Tennessee

February 23, 1961

Mr. John Allen Chalk

Cookville, Tennessee

Dear Brother Chalk:

I appreciated the call from you yesterday evening. It was good to hear from you and to know that you are supporting the Freed-Hardeman banquet wholeheartedly. There are some, though they had the privelages we enjoyed at Freed-Hardeman, who if it were within their power would close her doors before the setting of the sun. But they must never be permitted to do such a thing. The more interest we can create in the minds of the public in this respect the stronger the school will become.

We will have 10 in our group~~x~~. I wish we could have had twice that many or more but that was all I could get for this year.

Cordially Yours,

E. M. Pinckley

E. M. Pinckley