
John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

1-31-1961

From: Dick (Cupp?)

Dick unknown

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

Recommended Citation

unknown, D. (1961). From: Dick (Cupp?). Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/819>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

Jan. 31, 1961

Dear John,

I am enclosing "One Man's View of Sin," from the July, 1960 CORONET. This is the article I told you about in our last meeting, during your engagement at Vandalia. I think it goes along well with your "Age of Payola" sermon."

I'm looking forward to seeing the article you mentioned from which you based your sermon. I'd still like to get up a lesson of my own on the subject.

Everyone's well here, and I hope this finds you all the same. I'm still taking 2 courses at Ball State, but am looking forward to taking the spring and summer quarters off. We might get down to see you this summer--but that's not a promise. ~~It~~ I'll put it this way--we want to get down to see you this summer. Time will tell.

How ~~is~~ was the meeting at Vandalia? Write and let us know ~~is~~ how you're ~~is~~ all getting along.

Yours,

Dick