Mr. John Allen Chalk
542 N. Washington Avenue
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear John Allen:

Today I received a letter from the Madison church. They want me to speak at both services on Sunday, June 18. Since they are paying my salary, I had better go. If you have made any arrangements about the 18th, could I come on the 25th and fulfill these? If you have not talked with anyone, then let's just forget the matter for June and I will try to come to Cookeville during July or August.

^{Forward}
I had looked to being with the congregation there and preach on the 18th. However, I am sure you understand that I must go to Madison. As I must arrange my schedule, please let me know immediately if you had made any arrangements for the 18th, and if they could be fulfilled on the 25th of June.

We plan to be at the Lipscomb lectures. Hope to see you then. Please answer soon.

Yours in Christ,

Dewayne Davenport
