Dear John Allen:

I have waited to write you because I remembered you saying that you had another meeting to begin as soon as you returned home.

I can speak for the entire congregation when I say that our meeting was a success even far above our hopes. I have heard a continual stream of compliments concerning your part in the meeting. We want you to know that we appreciate so much your "hard work" in preparing and presenting the lessons.

Your ability, which I know was acquired by much study, is a constant and remaining inspiration to me. I doubt that I have heard anyone speak who had as complete control of his lesson as did you.

Several in the congregation have received letters from you, and they have expressed their appreciation to me. I think things like that will better prepare things for next year.

We are still feeling the aftereffects of the meeting. Our attendance and especially our contribution is running on a higher level than usual. I know that your sermon on Christian giving did lots of good. Several "uped" their contribution. Again I say that, honestly, think that was the best scriptural and persuasive presentation of the matter that I have ever heard. I also appreciate you sending the outline.

Concerning next year's meeting, the dates that you gave us, July 19-25, will be fine. If your schedule will allow we would like to go through Sunday the 23rd but if not to end on the 25th will still be suitable with us.

I am certainly looking forward to and working for a better meeting than we had this year. The meeting this year was so good that I don't know it is possible to have a better one, but we hope so anyway.

May God continue to bless you with health and wisdom.

have to end on Sat. July 28
