Dear Brother John Allen:

We received your letter of recent date and the bond which paid your Preacher’s Loan Scholarship. You will find your receipt and the cancelled note enclosed.

I cannot be too certain about such business transactions but my opinion is that this is not subject to tax deduction. If you have some specialist in these matters there, I would advise asking him about this part of the procedure.

We appreciate your expression about the value of the Loan Scholarship because we want them to continue to do a good work.

We wish for you a happy Christmas and success throughout the coming year.

Your brother in Christ,

C. P. Roland, Vice-President
