Dear Brother Chalk,

We are now on the threshold of opening another session in Freed-Hardeman College. All of us administrators and Bible teachers have had a wonderful summer’s work. The prospect is bright for one of our finest enrollments. We hope you have also had a most successful summer in every way, and that you may be able to visit us early in the coming session.

Mrs. Utt has recently informed me about the Preacher’s Loan Scholarships that are due now and within the next few weeks. In the list is one you obtained. It is due on September 20, 1960 for $100.00.

It has been a pleasure to provide such assistance to so splendid a group and we hope you can make payment of this on the date due because we have many others expecting assistance for the coming session.

Your brother in Christ,

C. P. Roland
Vice-President
