Mr. John A. Chalk, Minister
Broad Street Church of Christ
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear John:

I have intended to write you for some time and tell you of a family that recently moved from Woodbury to Cookeville. Roy Luna was the County Agent here and I understand holds that position in Putnam County. This family formerly worshiped with us and Roy was one of our deacons. They were one of the families involved in the leaving and establishing of a group opposed to co-operative efforts such as the church helping Tennessee Orphan Home. Mrs. Luna is the sister of Jim Cope and perhaps is a stronger supporter and believer in this doctrine than her husband.

John, I appreciated you warning me of Richard Weaver before I came to Woodbury and I wanted to return the favor should this family begin attending where you preach. They are good people and it would cause much rejoicing, on our part, if they would change and come back to the truth. I have written you of this matter only with the best of intentions and hope that you will accept it as such.

I hope that you are having a good work at Broad Street and give our best regards to your family. If you are ever through Woodbury, stop and visit.

In Christian fellowship,
