Dear John Allen:

Your suggestion for the meeting beginning Sunday night Aug 12th, continuing through Sunday night Aug 19th seems to be all right. We shall all look forward to that date.

We trust though, in the meantime, you take the advise of those who are interested in your welfare- including us- that you slow down a bit. It will be hard for you to do I know, if you are still going at the gait as when you were in H.F.!. It is better to do it voluntarily however, than to wait until you have to.

None of us had heard of Mary Elizabeth's arrival. Sounds as though she is a fine baby. I hope in another 4½ months she will be speaking more fluently!!. Congratulations to the 3 of you.

Next August is an awfully long time off, so be letting us hear from you along.

Christian love,
