Dear Brother Collins:

The Elders of this congregation appreciate your willingness to come on the May date suggested. However, after examining the meetings and other events to transpire in this area during the same month, they have decided to have this series of lessons October 1-5, 1962. Your first letter to us suggested that you could come the week of October 1.

This is to inform you that you have been booked for Wednesday night, October 3, 1962. The exact nature of the Lectureship and your personal lesson will be decided within the next two weeks. If something now prevents you from accepting this engagement, please let me know.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
